3. The moneys received from such tax and other sources in such fund, after deducting the amount the commissioner of taxation and finance shall determine to be necessary for reasonable costs of the state tax commission in administering, collecting and distributing such tax, commencing with the fiscal year ending March thirty-first, nineteen hundred seventy-seven, shall be appropriated to (i) the municipal assistance corporation for the city of New York created pursuant to title three of article ten of the public authorities law in order to enable such corporation to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of its notes and bonds and to carry out its corporate purposes including the maintenance of the capital reserve fund and (ii) to the extent such moneys are not required by such corporation as provided in subdivision seven of section ninety-two-d of this [~~chapter~~] article and, after deducting the amount such commissioner shall determine to be necessary for reasonable costs of the state tax commission in administering and making distributions in accordance with the provisions of section two hundred eighty-a of the tax law from the stock transfer incentive fund, to the stock transfer incentive fund created pursuant to section ninety-two-i of this [~~chapter~~] article to enable rebates to be made from such fund under the provisions of section two hundred eighty-a of the tax law and (iii) to the extent such moneys are not required by such fund, as certified by the commissioner of taxation and finance, the balance shall be appropriated to the [~~city of New York, for the support of local government~~] metropolitan transportation authority special assistance fund pursuant to subdivision one of section twelve hundred seventy-a of the public authorities law.

4. After the deduction of such costs of the state tax commission in administering, collecting and distributing such tax, the balances in the stock transfer tax fund so appropriated shall be distributed and paid on the last business day of September, December, March and June into the special account established for the municipal assistance corporation for the city of New York in the municipal assistance tax fund established pursuant to subdivision one of section ninety-two-d of this [~~chapter~~] article, unless and to the extent the balances in such fund on each such payment day are not required by such corporation as provided in said subdivision seven of said section ninety-two-d in which case the balance not so required, if any, after the deduction of such costs of the state tax commission in administering and making distributions in accordance with the provisions of section two hundred eighty-a of the tax law from the stock transfer incentive fund shall be distributed and paid to the stock transfer incentive fund in the custody of the commissioner of taxation and finance established pursuant to section ninety-two-i of this [~~chapter~~] article and unless and to the extent that the balances in the stock transfer tax fund on each such payment day are not required by the stock transfer incentive fund as provided in such section ninety-two-i of this [~~chapter~~] article in which case the balance not so required, if any, shall be distributed and paid to the [~~chief fiscal officer of the city of New York to be paid into the treasury of the city to the credit of the general fund or paid by the commissioner of taxation and finance to such other account or fund as may be designated in writing by such chief fiscal officer at least ten business days prior to such last day and on each such day, the~~] metropolitan transportation authority special assistance fund pursuant to subdivision one of section twelve hundred seventy-a of the public authorities law. The commissioner of taxation and finance shall certify to the comptroller the amount deducted for administering, collecting and distributing such tax during such quarterly period and shall pay such amount into the general fund of the state treasury to the credit of the state purposes fund therein. In no event shall any amount (other than the amount to be deducted for administering, collecting and distributing such tax) be distributed or paid from the stock transfer tax fund to any person other than the municipal assistance corporation for the city of New York unless and until the aggregate of all payments certified to the comptroller as required by such corporation in order to comply with its agreements with the holders of its notes and bonds and to carry out its corporate purposes, including the maintenance of the capital reserve fund, which remain unappropriated or unpaid to such corporation shall have been appropriated to such corporation and shall have been paid in full provided, however, that no person, including such corporation or the holders of its notes or bonds shall have any lien on such tax and such agreements shall be executory only to the extent of the balances available to the state in such fund. If the balances in such fund are not required by such corporation pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision, on each such last business day of September, December, March and June, the commissioner of taxation and finance shall certify to the comptroller the amount deducted for administering and making distributions in accordance with the provisions of section two hundred eighty-a of the tax law from the stock transfer incentive fund during such quarterly period and he shall pay such amount into the general fund of the state treasury to the credit of the state purposes fund therein. To the extent such moneys are not required by such corporation, as provided in subdivision seven of section ninety-two-d of this [~~chapter~~] article, no amount thereof (other than such amount to be deducted for administering, collecting and distributing such tax and such costs in administering and making distributions in accordance with the provisions of section two hundred eighty-a of the tax law from the stock transfer incentive fund) shall be distributed or paid from the stock transfer tax fund other than to such stock transfer incentive fund in the custody of the commissioner of taxation and finance unless and until the aggregate of all payments certified to the comptroller by such commissioner pursuant to the provisions of such incentive fund as necessary to provide payments on account of rebates authorized pursuant to section two hundred eighty-a of the tax law which remain unappropriated or unpaid to such fund shall have been appropriated to such fund and shall have been paid in full provided, however, that no person, including any taxpayer under article twelve of the tax law or any member or dealer referred to in subdivisions two-a and six of section two hundred eighty-a of such law, shall have any lien on this fund or the stock transfer incentive fund.

§ 3. Subdivision 1 of section 1270-a of the public authorities law, as amended by section 14 of part H of chapter 25 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:

1. The authority shall create and establish a fund to be known as the "metropolitan transportation authority special assistance fund" which shall be kept separate from and shall not be commingled with any other moneys of the authority. The special assistance fund shall consist of three separate accounts: (i) the "transit account", (ii) the "commuter railroad account" and (iii) the "corporate transportation account".

The authority shall make deposits in the transit account and the commuter railroad account of the moneys received by it pursuant to the provisions of subdivision one of section two hundred eighty-a of the tax law, subdivisions three and four of section ninety-two-b of the state finance law, and subdivision one of section two hundred sixty-one of the tax law in accordance with the provisions thereof, and shall make deposits in the corporate transportation account of the moneys received by it pursuant to the provisions of subdivision two of section two hundred sixty-one of the tax law and section ninety-two-ff of the state finance law.

§ 4. This act shall take effect September 1, 2019.
