AN ACT to amend the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to penalties for owners of property who fail to file a proper or timely rent registration statement

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The opening paragraph of paragraph 1 of subdivision a of 2 section 12 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, constituting 3 the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, as amended 4 by chapter 116 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

5 Subject to the conditions and limitations of this paragraph, any owner б of housing accommodations in a city having a population of less than one 7 million or a town or village as to which an emergency has been declared pursuant to section three, who, upon complaint of a tenant or of the 8 9 state division of housing and community renewal, is found by the state 10 division of housing and community renewal, after a reasonable opportu-11 nity to be heard, to have collected an overcharge above the rent authorized for a housing accommodation subject to this act shall be liable to 12 the tenant for a penalty equal to [three] at least three times the 13 amount, not to exceed five times the amount of such overcharge. In no 14 event shall such [treble damage] a penalty be assessed against an owner 15 16 based solely on said owner's failure to file a proper or timely initial 17 or annual rent registration statement. If the owner establishes by a 18 preponderance of the evidence that the overcharge was neither willful nor attributable to his negligence, the state division of housing and 19 20 community renewal shall establish the penalty as the amount of the over-21 charge plus interest at the rate of interest payable on a judgment 22 pursuant to section five thousand four of the civil practice law and rules. (i) Except as to complaints filed pursuant to clause (ii) of this 1 2 paragraph, the legal regulated rent for purposes of determining an overcharge, shall be deemed to be the rent indicated in the annual registra-3 4 tion statement filed four years prior to the most recent registration 5 statement, (or, if more recently filed, the initial registration stateб ment) plus in each case any subsequent lawful increases and adjustments. 7 Where the amount of rent set forth in the annual rent registration 8 statement filed four years prior to the most recent registration state-9 ment is not challenged within four years of its filing, neither such 10 rent nor service of any registration shall be subject to challenge at 11 time thereafter. (ii) As to complaints filed within ninety days of any the initial registration of a housing accommodation, the legal regulated 12 13 rent for purposes of determining an overcharge shall be deemed to be the 14 rent charged on the date four years prior to the date of the initial 15 registration of the housing accommodation (or, if the housing accommo-16 dation was subject to this act for less than four years, the initial legal regulated rent) plus in each case, any lawful increases and 17 18 adjustments. Where the rent charged on the date four years prior to the 19 date of the initial registration of the accommodation cannot be estab-20 lished, such rent shall be established by the division. Where the amount 21 of rent set forth in the annual rent registration statement filed four years prior to the most recent registration statement is not challenged 22 within four years of its filing, neither such rent nor service of 23 any 24 registration shall be subject to challenge at any time thereafter. 25 § 2. The opening paragraph of subdivision a of section 26-516 of the 26 administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by chapter 116 27 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows: 28 Subject to the conditions and limitations of this subdivision, any 29 owner of housing accommodations who, upon complaint of a tenant, or of 30 the state division of housing and community renewal, is found by the 31 state division of housing and community renewal, after a reasonable 32 opportunity to be heard, to have collected an overcharge above the rent 33 authorized for a housing accommodation subject to this chapter shall be 34 liable to the tenant for a penalty equal to [three] at least three times 35 the amount, not to exceed five times the amount of such overcharge. In 36 no event shall such [treble damage] a penalty be assessed against an 37 owner based solely on said owner's failure to file a timely or proper initial or annual rent registration statement. If the owner establishes 38 by a preponderance of the evidence that the overcharge was not willful, 39 the state division of housing and community renewal shall establish the 40 41 penalty as the amount of the overcharge plus interest. (i) Except as to 42 complaints filed pursuant to clause (ii) of this paragraph, the legal 43 regulated rent for purposes of determining an overcharge, shall be the 44 rent indicated in the annual registration statement filed four years 45 prior to the most recent registration statement, (or, if more recently 46 filed, the initial registration statement) plus in each case any subse-47 quent lawful increases and adjustments. Where the amount of rent set forth in the annual rent registration statement filed four years prior 48 49 to the most recent registration statement is not challenged within four 50 years of its filing, neither such rent nor service of any registration 51 shall be subject to challenge at any time thereafter. (ii) As to 52 complaints filed within ninety days of the initial registration of а 53 housing accommodation, the legal regulated rent shall be deemed to be 54 the rent charged on the date four years prior to the date of the initial 55 registration of the housing accommodation (or, if the housing accommo-56 dation was subject to this chapter for less than four years, the initial
