If the information required by paragraph a of this subdivision is not accessible through the use of the internet, the organization shall provide that information without charge to any person who requests the information on paper.

c. This subdivision shall apply to any consumer arbitration commenced on or after January first, two thousand twenty-one.

d. This subdivision shall not apply to arbitrations involving disputes between consumers.

e. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to agreements negotiated with any labor union through collective bargaining.

4. a. No private arbitration organization may administer a consumer arbitration to be conducted in this state, or provide any other services related to a consumer arbitration, if:

(1) the organization has, or within the preceding year has had, a financial interest in any party or attorney for a party; or

(2) any party or attorney for a party has, or within the preceding year has had, any type of financial interest in the private arbitration organization.

b. This subdivision shall operate only prospectively so as not to prohibit the administration of consumer arbitrations on the basis of financial interests held prior to January first, two thousand twenty-one.

c. For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "financial interest" means ownership of more than a one percent legal or equitable interest in a party, or a legal or equitable interest in a party of a fair market value in excess of one thousand five hundred dollars, or a relationship as director, advisor or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except as follows:

1 (1) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securi-

11 value of the interest.

12 5. a. Whenever there shall be a violation of this section, an appli-13 cation may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of 14 the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a 15 special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the 16 defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the contin-17 uance of such violation; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of 18 the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this 19 section, an injunction may be issued by such court or justice, enjoining 20 and restraining any further violation, without requiring proof that any 21 person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such 22 proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as 23 provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of section eighty-three 24 hundred three of the civil practice law and rules, and direct restitu-
25 tion. In connection with any such proposed application, the attorney 26 general is authorized to take proof and make a determination of the 27 relevant facts and to issue subpoenas in accordance with the civil prac-
28 tice law and rules.

29 b. Notwithstanding any right of action granted to the attorney general
30 pursuant to this section, any person who has been injured by reason of a 31 violation of this section may bring an action in his or her own name to 32 enjoin such unlawful act, an action to recover his or her actual damages 33 or both such actions. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees to 34 a prevailing plaintiff.

35 c. Whenever the court shall determine that a violation of this 36 section has occurred, the court may impose a civil penalty of not more 37 than two thousand dollars for such violation.

39 quently entered into in violation of subdivision two of this section 40 shall constitute a separate violation.

41 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 42 it shall have become a law.
