appearance at the scheduled hearing or an adjourned hearing which results in a final disposition of the charge, and otherwise shall be forfeited. If a suspension has been imposed pursuant to this subdivision and the case is subsequently transferred pursuant to subdivision two of

5 section two hundred twenty five of this article, such suspension shall 6 remain in effect until the person answers the charges in the court to 7 which the case was transferred. Any suspension issued pursuant to this 8 paragraph shall be subject to the provisions of paragraph (j-1) of 9 subdivision two of section five hundred three of this chapter.

10 (b) Failure to answer or appear in accordance with the requirements 11 of this section and any regulations promulgated hereunder shall be deemed an admission to the violation as charged, and an appropriate 12 order may be entered in the department's records, and a fine consistent 13 14 with the provisions of this chapter and regulations of the commissioner 15 may be imposed by the commissioner or person designated by the commis-16 sioner. Prior to entry of an order and imposition of a fine, the 17 commissioner shall notify such person by mail at the address of such person on file with the department or at the current address provided by 18 the United States postal service in accordance with section two hundred 19 20 fourteen of this chapter: (i) of the violation charged; (ii) of the 21 impending entry of such order and fine; (iii) that such order and fine may be filed as a judgment with the county clerk of the county in which 22 the operator or registrant is located; and (iv) that entry of such order 23 24 and imposition of such fine may be avoided by entering a plea or making 25 an appearance within thirty days of the sending of such notice. In no 26 case shall such an order and fine be entered and imposed more than two 27 years after the date of the alleged violation. Upon application in such manner and form as the commissioner shall prescribe an order and fine 28 shall be vacated upon the ground of excusable default. 29

30 § 2. The vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new section 31 226-a to read as follows:

32 § 226-a. Return date notifications. The commissioner shall notify any 33 person who receives a summons or appearance ticket for a violation described in subdivision one of section two hundred twenty-five of this 34 35 chapter of the time and place of the return date for such summons no 36 later than one week prior to the return date. The commissioner shall (a) 37 send the notification by first class mail at the address of such person 38 on file with the department or at the current address provided by the United States Postal Service in accordance with section two hundred 39 40 fourteen of this chapter; and (b) in collaboration with state and local law enforcement agencies, make best efforts to provide an additional 41 42 notification by text message, electronic mail or phone call using the best available phone number or electronic mail address for the intended 43 44 person. 45 § 3. The vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new section 46 229 to read as follows:

47 § 229. Reasonable payment plans. 1. The court or hearing officer shall 48 offer the opportunity for a reasonable payment plan at no charge to the 49 person. A reasonable payment plan shall comprehend all fines, fees and mandatory surcharges and shall consist of monthly payments that do not 50 51 exceed two percent of the person's monthly net income or ten dollars per 52 month, whichever is greater. Monthly net income means total monetary 53 payments from any source, minus deductions required by law, including 54 but not limited to administrative or court-ordered garnishments and support payments. The court or traffic violations agency may accept 55 56 payments higher than the set amount, but may not undertake additional collection activity so long as the person meets his or her obligations 1 2 under the payment plan. The court or hearing officer may require people 3 with payment plans to appear periodically, but no more often than annu-4 ally, to assess their financial circumstances and may set a new payment 5 amount if the person's financial circumstances have changed. A person б who enters into a payment plan and experiences a reduction in income may 7 petition the court or hearing officer at any time to seek a reduction in 8 the monthly payment. 9 2. The court or hearing officer shall have the discretion in the 10 interests of justice to reduce or waive the amount of any fine, fee or 11 mandatory surcharge assessed for a violation of any of the provisions of 12 this chapter. 3. A person assessed a fine, fee and/or mandatory surcharge for a 13 14 violation of any of the provisions of this chapter shall be notified of their right to a reasonable payment plan (a) at the time the citation or 15 16 ticket is issued; (b) at the time of sentencing; and (c) in any communi-17 cation concerning imposition or collection of the fine, fee or mandatory surcharge. Information about the availability of payment plans shall be 18 19 prominently posted at each court and traffic violations agency, on its 20 website, if any, and on the commissioner's website. 21 4. Paragraph a of subdivision 4 of section 227 of the vehicle and S 22 traffic law, as amended by section 7 of part J of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows: 23 a. An order entered upon the failure to answer or appear or after the 24 25 receipt of an answer admitting the charge or where a determination is 26 made that the charge has been established shall be civil in nature, but 27 shall be treated as a conviction for the purposes of this chapter. The 28 commissioner or his designee may include in such order an imposition of 29 any penalty authorized by any provision of this chapter for a conviction 30 of such violation, except that no penalty therefore shall include impri-31 sonment, nor, if monetary, exceed the amount of the fine which could 32 have been imposed had the charge been heard by a court. [The driver's 33 license or privileges, or, if the charge involves a violation of section three hundred eighty-five or section four hundred one of this chapter by 34 35 a registrant who was not the operator of the vehicle, the registration of such vehicle or privilege of operation of any motor vehicle owned by 36 such registrant may be suspended pending the payment of any penalty so 37 imposed. Any suspension issued pursuant to this paragraph shall be 38 subject to the provisions of paragraph (j-1) of subdivision two of 39 section five hundred three of this chapter.] 40 41 § 5. Paragraph (j-1) of subdivision 2 of section 503 of the vehicle 42 and traffic law, as added by section 8 of part J of chapter 62 of the 43 laws of 2003, subparagraph (i) as amended by section 3 of part PP of 44 chapter 59 of the laws of 2009 and subparagraph (iv) as added by section 45 4 of part PP of chapter 59 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as 46 follows: 47 (j-1) (i) [When a license issued pursuant to this article, or a privilege of operating a motor vehicle or of obtaining such a license, has 48 been suspended based upon a failure to answer an appearance ticket or a 49 50 summons or failure to pay a fine, penalty or mandatory surcharge, pursu-51 ant to subdivision three of section two hundred twenty-six, subdivision 52 four of section two hundred twenty-seven, subdivision four-a of section

53 five hundred ten or subdivision five-a of section eighteen hundred nine 54 of this chapter, such suspension shall remain in effect until a termi-55 nation of a suspension fee of seventy dollars is paid to the court or 56 tribunal that initiated the suspension of such license or privilege. In

1 no event may the aggregate of the fees imposed by an individual court pursuant to this paragraph for the termination of all suspensions that 3 may be terminated as a result of a person's answers, appearances or 4 payments made in such cases pending before such individual court exceed 5 four hundred dollars. For the purposes of this paragraph, the various

6 locations of the administrative tribunal established under article two-A 7 of this chapter shall be considered an individual court.

8 (ii) Any such fee collected by any court, judge, magistrate or other 9 officer specified in subdivision one of section thirty-nine of the judi-10 ciary law, establishing a unified court budget, shall be paid to the 11 state commissioner of taxation and finance on a monthly basis no later 12 than ten days after the last day of each month. All such monies 13 collected under this subdivision shall be deposited to the indigent 14 legal services fund established by section ninety-eight-b of the state 15 finance law.

16 [(iii)] (ii) Any such fee collected by any other court, judge, magis-17 trate or other officer shall, except as provided in paragraph (k) of 18 this subdivision, be paid to the state comptroller within the first ten days of the month following collection. Every such payment to the comp-19 20 troller shall be accompanied by a statement in such form and detail as 21 the comptroller shall provide. All such monies collected under this subdivision shall be deposited to the indigent legal services fund 22 23 established by section ninety-eight-b of the state finance law.

[(iv)] (iii) Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph, fifty percent of all fees collected pursuant to this paragraph shall be deposited to the credit of the general fund.

27 § 6. Subdivision 4-a of section 510 of the vehicle and traffic law is 28 REPEALED.

S 7. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 511 of the vehicle and traffic law, as amended by chapter 607 of the laws of 1993 and subparagraph (ii) as amended by chapter 196 of the laws of 1996, is amended to read as follows:
