IN ASSEMBLY

May 7, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. ROZIC, DE LA ROSA, SIMON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law and the executive law, in relation to establishing sexual harassment prevention protocols within the private sector

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 44 to
2	read as follows:
3	§ 44. Prevention of sexual harassment. 1. The department shall produce
4	a strong model management policy statement defining and prohibiting
5	sexual harassment in the workplace. Such model policy shall include
6	recommendations on how employers may provide information and remedies to
7	employees, including but not limited to a statement informing employees
8	of their rights of redress, and the availability of complaint resolution
9	channels and assistance with incidents of sexual harassment. Such model
10	policy statement shall clearly state that sexual harassment is consid-
11	ered a form of employee misconduct and that sanctions will be enforced
12	against individuals engaging in sexual harassment and against superviso-
13	ry and managerial personnel who knowingly allow such behavior to contin-
14	ue.
15	2. The department shall produce a model training program to prevent
16	sexual harassment in the workplace.
17	(a) Such model training program shall include information concerning
18	the federal and state statutory provisions concerning sexual harassment
19	and remedies available to victims of sexual harassment.
20	(b) Such department shall also include information in such model
21	program specifically addressing conduct by supervisors as both partic-
22	ipants in a general training program and in a supervisor-specific
23	program to prevent sexual harassment in the workplace.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1	3. The department may consult with the division of human rights in the
2	production of information set forth under this section.
3	4. The commissioner shall promulgate regulations allowing for distrib-
4	ution of the availability of the information set forth in this section
5	to employers and the public.
6	§ 2. Section 296 of the executive law is amended by adding two new
7	subdivisions 1-b and 22 to read as follows:
8	1-b. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for an employer
	to:
10	(a) engage in unwelcome sexual advances towards, make requests for
11	sexual favors from, or engage in other verbal or physical conduct of a
12	sexual or sex-based nature with an employee when: (i) submission to such 13	conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of 14	an individual's employment; (ii) submission to or rejection of such
15	conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions
16	affecting such individual; or (iii) such conduct has the purpose or
17	effect of interfering with an individual's work performance by creating
18	an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.
19	(b) For the purposes of this subdivision, "employer" shall include any
20	individual who may hire, transfer, suspend, lay off, recall, promote,
21	discharge, assign, reward, or discipline other employees, or has respon-
22	sibility to direct them or effectively recommend such action, if the use
23	of such authority is not merely routine or clerical in nature, but
24	requires the use of independent judgment.
25	22. In any case brought pursuant to the provisions of this article on
26	the basis of sex or sexual harassment only, where a person alleges that
27	a covered entity has deprived such person of equal terms and conditions
