accumulated resources, unless such applicant or recipient is seeking medical assistance payment for long term care services for the first time. A recipient who has already provided documentation of resources may attest to the amount of accumulated resources if it has remained the same or is less than the amount originally documented. For purposes of this paragraph, long term care services shall mean care, treatment, maintenance, and services described in paragraph (b) of subdivision [1] one of section three hundred sixty-seven-f of this title, with the exception of short term rehabilitation, as defined by the commissioner of health.

- § 3. Paragraph (d) of subdivision 5 of section 366-a of the social services law, as amended by section 12 of part D of chapter 56 of the laws of 2013, is relettered paragraph (e) and three new paragraphs (f), (g) and (h) are added to read as follows:
- (f) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of subdivision two of this section and paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this subdivision, the following recipients will be recertified automatically, unless there has been a finding of lack of eligibility for Medicaid:
- (i) enrollees in Medicaid managed long term care plans as defined in section forty-four hundred three-f of the public health law;
- (ii) enrollees in Medicaid managed care plans as defined in section three hundred sixty-four-j of this title who receive personal care services pursuant to paragraph (e) of subdivision two of section three hundred sixty-five-a of this title or consumer directed personal assistance services pursuant to section three hundred sixty-five-f of this title;
- (iii) enrollees receiving Medicaid in the Aged, Blind and Disabled category who receive fixed income from the Social Security Administration (SSA); and
- (iv) Medicare Savings Program (MSP) recipients who have a fixed income from the Social Security Administration (SSA).
- (g) Nothing in paragraph (e) of this subdivision should be construed to alter a Medicaid recipient's obligation to inform the public welfare district of changes in income or other factors that might impact eligibility pursuant to subdivision four of this section.
- (h) Upon a finding of lack of eligibility, recipients identified in paragraph (e) of this subdivision will be entitled to notice and hearing rights as provided in section twenty-two of this chapter.
- § 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law; provided that the amendments to paragraph (b) of subdivision 7 of section 4403-f of the public health law made by section one of this act shall be subject to the expiration and reversion of such paragraph and shall expire and be deemed repealed therewith and provided further that such amendments shall not affect the repeal of such section and shall expire and be deemed repealed therewith. Effec-tive immediately, the commissioner of health shall make regulations and take other actions reasonably necessary to implement this act on that date.
