AN ACT to amend the general city law, in relation to a residency exemption for plumbing inspectors in the city of Jamestown

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 48 of the general city law, as amended by chapter 585 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:

§ 48. Inspectors; qualifications; notice. The local board of health or an official or board designated by local law of such city, as the case may be shall detail, designate or appoint an inspector or inspectors of plumbing, subject, however, to the provisions or limitations of law, regulating the appointment of such inspectors by such board of health or 7 an official or board designated by local law of such city. All inspectors of plumbing who are detailed, designated or appointed shall be practical plumbers and shall not be engaged directly or indirectly in 10 the business of plumbing, during the period of their appointment. They 12 shall be citizens and actual residents of the city in which they are appointed; except in the cities of Cortland and Corning, where such 13 14 inspectors shall be citizens and actual residents of the county or coun-15 ties wherein the city is situated, or in an abutting or adjacent county; 16 except in the city of Watertown, where such inspectors shall be citizens and actual residents of the county wherein the city is situated except 17 in the city of Middletown, where such inspectors shall be citizens and 18 actual residents of the county wherein the city is situated, or within a 19 20 twenty-five mile radius of the city of Middletown as long as such inspectors are citizens and actual residents of this state; except in 22 the city of Jamestown, where such inspectors shall be citizens and actu-23 al residents of the county wherein the city is situated; except in any city with a population of less than twenty-five thousand, where such 25 inspectors shall be citizens and actual residents of the county or coun-
