Introduced by M. of A. L. ROSENTHAL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Employees

AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to equal pay for similar work protections for protected classes

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 1 of section 118 of the civil service law, as added by chapter 790 of the laws of 1958, is amended to 3 read as follows:

- (c) The principle of fair and equal pay for similar work or substan-5 tially similar work, when viewed as a composite of skill, effort, and responsibility, and performed under similar working conditions, for employees with status within a protected class shall be followed in the classification and reclassification and the allocation and reallocation of positions pursuant to this article and all positions having the same title shall be allocated to the same salary grade. For the purposes of 11 this section, the term "protected class" shall mean any group of individuals that are protected against an unlawful discriminatory practice by an employer pursuant to section two hundred ninety-six of the executive law.
- 15 § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 118 of the civil service law is amended 16 by adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:
- 17 (c) To ensure that no employee with status within a protected class shall be paid a wage at a rate less than the rate at which an employee 18 19 without status within a protected class or with status in the same, or a 20 different protected class in the same establishment is paid for similar 21 work or substantially similar work. For the purposes of this paragraph, 22 employees shall be deemed to work in the same establishment if the employees work for the same employer at workplaces located in the same 23 geographical region, no larger than a county, taking into account popu-24 25 lation distribution, economic activity, and/or the presence of munici-26
- palities. § 3. This act shall take effect immediately. 27
