IN ASSEMBLY

May 20, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. FAHY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Energy

AN ACT to amend the energy law, in relation to requiring an annual report on appliance and equipment energy efficiency standards and resulting energy and utility bill savings; and providing for repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 16-106 of the energy law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 4 to read as follows:

3 4. Beginning in two thousand twenty-one, by March fifteenth of each
4 year, the secretary shall produce a report to the governor, the speaker 5 of the assembly, the temporary president of the senate, the chair of the 6 assembly committee on energy and the chair of the senate committee on 7 energy and telecommunications on the status of regulations establishing 8 energy efficiency performance standards pursuant to this article, which 9 shall indicate for each product enumerated in subdivision one of section 10 16-104 of this article whether such performance standards have been (a) 11 adopted, (b) proposed, or (c) determined to be preempted by federal 12 government energy efficiency standards. For any product that has not 13 been determined by the secretary to be preempted by federal government 14 energy efficiency standards and for which regulations establishing ener-15 gy efficiency performance standards have not been proposed, the report
16 shall set forth the reasons that no standards have been proposed. Begin-17 ning in two thousand twenty-two, such report shall also set forth the 18 estimated potential annual reductions in energy use and potential utili-19 ty bill savings resulting from adopted performance standards for the 20 years two thousand twenty-five and two thousand thirty-five and the 21 potential cumulative reductions in energy use through the year two thou-22 sand thirty-five. The secretary shall consult with the president in 23 preparing such estimates. Such report shall be updated each year and a
