Introduced by M. of A. DINOWITZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to requiring certain businesses to offer identity theft prevention and mitigation services in the case of a security breach

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 899-aa of the general business law is amended by 2 adding a new subdivision 10 to read as follows:

3 10. (a) Where a security breach from a person or business other than a 4 consumer credit reporting agency includes a social security number, and that person or business is required to provide notice under subdivision two of this section, that person or business shall offer each resident of this state whose social security number was disclosed in the breach 8 of security or is reasonably believed to have been disclosed in the 9 breach of security, reasonable credit report monitoring, identity theft 10 prevention services and, if applicable, identity theft mitigation services at no cost to said resident for a period of not less than twen-11 ty-four months. The disclosure required by subdivision two of this 12 13 section shall include information for any resident of New York state whose social security number was disclosed as a result of a data breach 14 to obtain free, reasonable credit report monitoring, identity theft 15 prevention services and, if applicable, identity theft mitigation 16 services as described in this section. 17

(b) The requirement to provide twenty-four months of identity theft 19 mitigation services shall not apply to any individual person or small 20 business as defined in section one hundred thirty-one of the economic 21 development law that can demonstrate a financial hardship directly owing to such compliance. A request for a financial hardship waiver shall be made to the commissioner of the department of financial services on a 24 form prescribed by the department of financial services.
