AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to include certified first responders in a program relating to recertification of persons providing emergency medical care and removing the designation of such program as a pilot or demonstration program; and to amend chapter 459 of the laws of 1996, amending the public health law relating to recertification of persons providing emergency medical care, in relation to the effectiveness thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 2-b of section 3002 of the public health law, 2 as added by chapter 459 of the laws of 1996, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 2-b. The commissioner, in consultation with the state emergency
5 medical services council, shall develop a [~~pilot~~] program [~~in at least~~
6 ~~six regions of the state (including the western New York and capital~~ 7 ~~regions)~~] to allow certified first responders, emergency medical techni-8 cians and advanced emergency medical technicians who have been in 9 continuous practice, who have demonstrated competence in applicable
10 behavioral and performance objectives, and who have demonstrated 11 completion of appropriate continuing education, to renew their certifi-12 cation under subdivision two of this section without requiring the 13 completion of a written examination. In implementing this program, the 14 commissioner shall contract with and use the standards established by a 15 nationally recognized organization that certifies certified first
