AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law and the public health law, in relation to driving a motor vehicle under the influence of drugs or combined use of drugs and alcohol and defines the term inhalant

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new section 119-c to read as follows:

§ 119-c. Inhalant. Any substance set forth in subdivision one of section thirty-three hundred eighty of the public health law which is used by smelling or inhaling such substance or the prohibited use of nitrous oxide as set forth in subdivision five of such section; provided, however, that inhalant shall not include any such substance which is inhaled for lawful medical or dental purposes.

§ 2. Subdivisions 4 and 4-a of section 1192 of the vehicle and traffic law, subdivision 4 as added by chapter 47 of the laws of 1988 and subdivision 4-a as added by chapter 732 of the laws of 2006, are amended to read as follows:

4. Driving while ability impaired by drugs. No person shall operate a motor vehicle while the person's ability to operate such a motor vehicle is impaired by the use of a drug or inhalant as defined in this chapter, or impaired by the voluntary ingestion or inhalation of any other chemical, inhalant, pharmaceutical or other impairing substance or combination of substances to the extent the driver is incapable of employing the physical and mental abilities which he or she is expected to possess in order to operate a vehicle in a reasonable and prudent manner.

4-a. Driving while ability impaired by the combined influence of drugs or of alcohol and any drug or drugs. No person shall operate a motor vehicle while the person's ability to operate such motor vehicle is impaired by the combined influence of drugs and/or inhalants or of alcohol and any drug or drugs and/or inhalants or by the combined influence of alcohol or any drug or drugs and/or inhalants with any chemical, pharmaceutical, inhalant or other impairing substance or combination of substances to the extent the driver is incapable of employing the physical and mental abilities which he or she is expected to possess in order to operate a vehicle in a reasonable and prudent manner.

§ 3. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section 3380 of the public health law, as amended by chapter 234 of the laws of 1985, is amended to read as follows:

(b) As used in this section hazardous inhalants shall mean and include the hydrocarbon difluoroethane and any of the preparations of compounds containing one or more of the chemical compounds[~~,~~]: amyl nitrite, isoamyl nitrite, butyl nitrite, isobutyl nitrite, pentyl nitrite or any other [~~akyl~~] alkyl nitrite compound that is either designed to be used, or commonly used, as an inhalant.

§ 4. Section 1192 of the vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new subdivision 13 to read as follows:

13. It shall be an affirmative defense to a charge under subdivisions four and four-a of this section that the operator suffered a medical emergency rather than being impaired by the substance or combination of substances, provided, however, that no defense shall be available if any such ingested substance is contained in section thirty-three hundred six or section thirty-three hundred eighty of the public health law.

§ 5. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law; provided, however, that this act shall not apply to any offense committed before such date.
