IN ASSEMBLY

October 2, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. D'URSO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to providing that a community college may only charge the county of a non-resident student for the local sponsor's costs for not more than two academic years while such student is in attendance

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 6305 of the education law, as 2 amended by chapter 646 of the laws of 1975, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 2. Any community college may, with the approval of the state universi-5 ty trustees, charge non-resident students sufficient tuition and fees to 6 cover an allocable portion of the local sponsor's share of the operating 7 costs of such community college in addition to regular tuition and fees.
8 Such community college may elect to charge to and collect from each
9 county within the state which has issued a certificate or certificates
10 of residence pursuant to subdivision three of this section on the basis
11 of which such non-resident students are attending such community
12 college, an allocable portion of the local sponsor's share of the oper-13 ating costs of such community college attributable to such non-resident 14 students, computed on a per student basis, together with a further sum 15 of not to exceed three hundred dollars each year to be determined and 16 approved by the state university trustees for each such non-resident 17 student on account of the local sponsor's share of the capital costs 18 incurred to provide facilities in which such non-resident students can 19 be accommodated; or, where such non-resident students come from communi-
20 ties which have elected to participate in and pay an appropriate share 21 of the expenses involved in the local sponsor's community college
22 program, such allocable portion of operating expenses and such further 23 sum not to exceed three hundred dollars per student for capital costs on

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
