AN ACT to authorize the town of Smithtown to extend the boundaries of the St. James fire district to include the village of Head of the Harbor

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Notwithstanding any provision of article 11 of the town law to the contrary, upon the expiration of the contract between the village of Head of the Harbor, in the county of Suffolk, and the St. James fire district, providing for fire protection and emergency response by such fire district within such village, the town board of the town of Smithtown is authorized, in accordance with the provisions of subdivision 2 of section 170 of the town law, to extend the boundaries of the St. James fire district to include the village of Head of the Harbor in its entirety for the purposes of providing fire protection and emergency response within such village.

§ 2. Upon the extension by the town board of the town of Smithtown of the St. James fire district to include the village of Head of the Harbor, in accordance with section one of this act, such fire district and town board shall be subject to the provisions of article 11 of the town law, and shall continue to have all powers, duties and responsibilities vested in and imposed upon such districts and towns pursuant to such article, and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
