Services Actually Provided	Category of Amount (Table I)
----------------------------	------------------------------

A reporting individual need not disclose activities performed while lawfully acting in his or her capacity as provided in paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this article.

The disclosure requirement in questions (b-1) and (b-2) shall not require disclosing clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceutical or dental services, mental health services, or residential real estate brokering services from the reporting individual or his or her

1 firm or if federal law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting 2 individual need not identify any client to whom he or she or his or her 3 firm provided legal representation with respect to investigation or 4 prosecution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court, 5 estate planning, or domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting 6 individual identify individuals represented pursuant to an insurance 7 policy but the reporting individual shall in such circumstances only 8 report the entity that provides compensation to the reporting individ-9 ual; with respect to matters in which the client's name is required by 10 law to be kept confidential (such as matters governed by the family 11 court act) or in matters in which the reporting individual represents or 12 provides services to minors, the client's name may be replaced with 13 initials. To the extent that the reporting individual, or his or her 14 firm, provided legal representation with respect to an initial public 15 offering, and professional disciplinary rules, federal law or regu-16 lations restrict the disclosure of information relating to such work, 17 the reporting individual shall (i) disclose the identity of the client 18 and the services provided relating to the initial public offering to the 19 office of court administration, who will maintain such information 20 confidentially in a locked box; and (ii) include in his or her response 21 to questions (b-1) and (b-2) that pursuant to this paragraph, a disclo-22 sure to the office of court administration has been made. Upon such time 23 that the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no 24 longer restricted by professional disciplinary rules, federal law or 25 regulation, the reporting individual shall disclose such information in 26 an amended disclosure statement in response to the disclosure require-27 ments in questions (b-1) and (b-2). The office of court administration 28 shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which information 29 submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and confiden-30 tially stored. With respect to clients represented in other matters not 31 otherwise exempt, the reporting individual may request an exemption to 32 publicly disclosing the name of that client from the joint commission 33 pursuant to paragraph (i-1) of subdivision nine of section ninety-four 34 of the executive law, or from the office of court administration. In 35 such application, the reporting individual shall state the following: 36 "My client is not currently receiving my services or seeking my services 37 in connection with:

- 38 (i) A proposed bill or resolution in the senate or assembly during the 39 reporting period;
- 40 (ii) A contract in an amount totaling $10,000 or more from the state 41 or any state agency for services, materials, or property;
- 42 (iii) A grant of $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency
43 during the reporting period;
- 44 (iv) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative during the 45 reporting period; or
- 46 (v) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a 47 ministerial matter before a state agency during the reporting period."

48 In reviewing the request for an exemption, the joint commission or the 49 office of court administration may consult with bar or other profes-
50 sional associations and the legislative ethics commission for individ-
51 uals subject to its jurisdiction and may consider the rules of profes-52 sional conduct. In making its determination, the joint commission or the 53 office of court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall 54 consider factors including, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the 55 size of the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the 56 state; and if so, how significant the business is; and whether the

1 client has any particularized interest in pending legislation and if so 2 how significant the interest is; (iii) whether disclosure may reveal
3 trade secrets; (iv) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retal-
4 iation against the client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm 5 to the client; (vi) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the 6 attorney-client relationship; and (vii) whether disclosure may result in 7 an unnecessary invasion of privacy to the client.

8 The joint commission or, as the case may be, the office of court 9 administration shall promptly make a final determination in response to 10 such request, which shall include an explanation for its determination.
11 The office of court administration shall issue its final determination
12 within three days of receiving the request. Notwithstanding any other 13 provision of law or any professional disciplinary rule to the contrary, 14 the disclosure of the identity of any client or customer in response to 15 this question shall not constitute professional misconduct or a ground 16 for disciplinary action of any kind, or form the basis for any civil or 17 criminal cause of action or proceeding. A reporting individual who first 18 enters public office after January first, two thousand sixteen, need not 19 report clients or customers with respect to matters for which the 20 reporting individual or his or her firm was retained prior to entering 21 public office.

22 (c) APPLICABLE ONLY TO NEW CLIENTS OR CUSTOMERS FOR WHOM SERVICES ARE 23 PROVIDED ON OR AFTER DECEMBER THIRTY-FIRST, TWO THOUSAND FIFTEEN, OR FOR 24 NEW MATTERS FOR EXISTING CLIENTS OR CUSTOMERS WITH RESPECT TO THOSE 25 SERVICES THAT ARE PROVIDED ON OR AFTER DECEMBER THIRTY-FIRST, TWO THOU-26 SAND FIFTEEN:

27 If the reporting individual receives income of ten thousand dollars or 28 greater from any employment or activity reportable under question 8(a), 29 identify each registered lobbyist who has directly referred to such 30 individual a client who was successfully referred to the reporting indi-31 vidual's business and from whom the reporting individual or firm 32 received a fee for services in excess of five thousand dollars. Report 33 only those referrals that were made to a reporting individual by direct 34 communication from a person known to such reporting individual to be a 35 registered lobbyist at the time the referral is made. With respect to 36 each such referral, the reporting individual shall identify the client, 37 the registered lobbyist who has made the referral, the category of value 38 of the compensation received and a general description of the type of 39 matter so referred. A reporting individual need not disclose activities 40 performed while lawfully acting pursuant to paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and 41 (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this article. The 42 disclosure requirements in this question shall not require disclosing 43 clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceutical or dental 44 services, mental health services, or residential real estate brokering 45 services from the reporting individual or his or her firm or if federal 46 law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting individual need not 47 identify any client to whom he or she or his or her firm provided legal 48 representation with respect to investigation or prosecution by law 49 enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court, estate planning, or 50 domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting individual identify 51 individuals represented pursuant to an insurance policy but the report-52 ing individual shall in such circumstances only report the entity that 53 provides compensation to the reporting individual; with respect to 54 matters in which the client's name is required by law to be kept confi-55 dential (such as matters governed by the family court act) or in matters 56 in which the reporting individual represents or provides services to 1 minors, the client's name may be replaced with initials. To the extent 2 that the reporting individual, or his or her firm, provided legal repre-3 sentation with respect to an initial public offering, and federal law or 4 regulations restricts the disclosure of information relating to such 5 work, the reporting individual shall (i) disclose the identity of the 6 client and the services provided relating to the initial public offering 7 to the office of court administration, who will maintain such informa-8 tion confidentially in a locked box; and (ii) include in his or her 9 response a statement that pursuant to this paragraph, a disclosure to 10 the office of court administration has been made. Upon such time that 11 the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no longer 12 restricted by federal law or regulation, the reporting individual shall 13 disclose such information in an amended disclosure statement in response 14 to the disclosure requirements of this paragraph. The office of court 15 administration shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which 16 information submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and 17 confidentially stored. With respect to clients represented in other 18 matters not otherwise exempt, the reporting individual may request an 19 exemption to publicly disclosing the name of that client from the joint 20 commission pursuant to paragraph (i-1) of subdivision nine of section 21 ninety-four of the executive law, or from the office of court adminis-22 tration. In such application, the reporting individual shall state the 23 following: "My client is not currently receiving my services or seeking 24 my services in connection with:

25 (i) A proposed bill or resolution in the senate or assembly during the 26 reporting period;

27 (ii) A contract in an amount totaling $10,000 or more from the state
28 or any state agency for services, materials, or property;

29 (iii) A grant of $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency
30 during the reporting period;

31 (iv) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative during the 32 reporting period; or

33 (v) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a
34 ministerial matter before a state agency during the reporting period."

35 In reviewing the request for an exemption, the joint commission or the 36 office of court administration may consult with bar or other profes-
37 sional associations and the legislative ethics commission for individ-
38 uals subject to its jurisdiction and may consider the rules of profes-
39 sional conduct. In making its determination, the joint commission or the 40 office of court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall 41 consider factors including, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the 42 size of the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the 43 state; and if so, how significant the business is; and whether the 44 client has any particularized interest in pending legislation and if so
45 how significant the interest is; (iii) whether disclosure may reveal
46 trade secrets; (iv) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retal-
47 iation against the client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm
48 to the client; (vi) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the 49 attorney-client relationship; and (vii) whether disclosure may result in 50 an unnecessary invasion of privacy to the client.

51 The joint commission or, as the case may be, the office of court
52 administration shall promptly make a final determination in response to 53 such request, which shall include an explanation for its determination.
54 The office of court administration shall issue its final determination
56 provision of law or any professional disciplinary rule to the contrary, the disclosure of the identity of any client or customer in response to this question shall not constitute professional misconduct or a ground for disciplinary action of any kind, or form the basis for any civil or criminal cause of action or proceeding. A reporting individual who first enters public office after December thirty-first, two thousand fifteen, need not report clients or customers with respect to matters for which the reporting individual or his or her firm was retained prior to entering public office.
