Introduced by M. of A. WRIGHT -- read once and referred to the Committee on Cities

AN ACT to amend chapter 696 of the laws of 1887 relating to providing hospitals, orphan asylums and other charitable institutions in the city of New York with water and remitting assessments therefor, in relation to exempting certain housing development fund corporations from payment for water usage and supply

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1 of chapter 696 of the laws of 1887 relating to providing hospitals, orphan asylums and other charitable institutions in the city of New York with water and remitting assessments therefor, as amended by chapter 950 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:

[§] Section 1. a. Except as otherwise provided in section three of this act, the several hospitals, dispensaries, orphan asylums, registered volunteer ambulance corps, homes for the aged, non-profit housing development fund corporations as defined in subdivision b of this section, houses or homes for the reformation, protection or shelter of females, day nurseries or corporations or societies for the care and instruction of poor babies and needy children, any corporation which was created by an act of congress of the United States to be non-profit and without capital stock and organized exclusively for the purpose of furnishing volunteer aid to the sick and wounded of armies in time of war and to continue and carry on a system of national international relief in time of peace and to mitigate the suffering caused by fire, floods and other great national calamities, and industrial homes, and any benevolent or charitable corporation owning or maintaining an institution for medical research, public baths, for free school societies or free circulating libraries or veteran firemen's associations, and any social settlement, whether incorporated or unincorporated, which shall

36 any renewal or extension of such lease by any such corporation, socie-
37 ties and institutions aforesaid, or the real estate owned by any reli-
38 gious corporation located in the city of New York, as now constituted, 39 actually dedicated and used by such corporation exclusively as a place
40 of public worship, or the real estate used exclusively for education 41 through and including the twelfth grade which is owned by any corpo-42 ration or association entitled to exemption under the provisions of 43 paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section four hundred twenty-a of the 44 real property tax law, or the real estate used exclusively by non-profit 45 housing development fund corporations as defined in subdivision b of 46 this section, is hereby released, discharged and exempted from all lien 47 and charge for water heretofore used or which may hereafter be used by 48 any such institution, society or corporation. Notwithstanding the fore-
49 going provisions, the mayor of the city of New York, by executive order, 50 may provide that such institution, society or corporation shall not be 51 exempt from payment for the use and supply of water, except that such 52 executive order shall apply only with respect to those institutions, 53 societies or corporations who are eligible to receive reimbursement from 54 either the United States, the state of New York, or the city of New 55 York, or any agency thereof, for payments for the use and supply of 56 water.

1 b. As used in subdivision a of this section, the term "non-profit
2 housing development fund corporations" shall mean in a city having a 3 population of one million or more, a corporation, partnership, or limit-4 ed liability company formed for the purpose of providing housing accom-
5 modations for persons with families of low income as defined in section 6 two of the private housing finance law and used for such purpose and 7 organized as a non-profit housing development fund corporation pursuant 8 to article eleven of the private housing finance law.

9 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
