IN ASSEMBLY

January 27, 2020

Introduced by M. of A. ARROYO, CRUZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Correction

AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to offering college-level courses at all state-operated correctional facilities in the state

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 136 of the correction law is amended by adding a new subdivision 4 to read as follows:
A. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the commis-
sioner, in cooperation with the commissioner of education and director

5 of education, shall collaborate with the board of trustees of the state university of New York, the board of trustees of the city university of New York and the council of governing boards for the independent colleges of New York to implement the offering of college-level courses at all state-operated correctional facilities where female incarcerated individuals are confined on or before January first, two thousand twenty-one. Such courses shall be offered at all state-operated correctional facilities on or before January first, two thousand twenty-three. Such courses shall apply towards the completion of a college degree program. The department shall ensure that all college-level course offerings are uniform among all the state-operated correctional facilities in the state pursuant to section one hundred fourteen of this article.

17 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
