Introduced by M. of A. FERNANDEZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to employee or prospective employee testing for the presence of tetrahydrocannabinols or marihuana as a condition of employment

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 296 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 23 to read as follows:

3 23. (a) Except as otherwise provided by law, it shall be an unlawful 4 discriminatory practice for an employer, labor organization, employment 5 agency, or agent thereof to require an employee or a prospective employ-6 ee to submit to testing for the presence of any tetrahydrocannabinols or 7 marihuana in such employee's or prospective employee's system as a 8 condition of employment.

9 (b) The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to persons 10 working or applying to work:

11 (i) as police officers or peace officers, as those terms are defined 12 in subdivisions thirty-three and thirty-four of section 1.20 of the 13 criminal procedure law, respectively, or in a position with a law 14 enforcement or investigative function at the department of investi-15 gation;

16 (ii) in any position requiring compliance with section two hundred 17 twenty-h of the labor law;

18 (iii) in any position requiring a commercial driver's license;

19 (iv) in any position requiring the supervision or care of children, 20 medical patients or vulnerable persons as defined in paragraph fifteen 21 of section four hundred eighty-eight of the social services law; or

22 (v) in any position with the potential to significantly impact the 23 health or safety of employees or members of the public.

24 (c) The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to drug testing 25 required pursuant to:

26 (i) any regulation promulgated by the federal department of transpor-
27 tation that requires testing of an employee or a prospective employee in
