AN ACT to amend the banking law, the state finance law and the general municipal law, in relation to establishing the "New York public banking act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "New York public banking act".

3 § 2. It is the intent of the legislature that this act (i) authorizes 4 the lending of public credit to public banks and authorizes public 5 ownership of stock in public banks for the purpose of achieving cost 6 savings, strengthening local economies, supporting community economic 7 development, and addressing infrastructure and housing needs for locali-8 ties; and (ii) codifies the common law interpretation of the New York 9 state constitution that cities, counties, and other municipalities may 10 own stock in and lend money to private corporations so long as such 11 actions are pursuant to a public purpose.

12 § 3. Subdivisions 1 and 11 of section 2 of the banking law, subdivi-13 sion 1 as amended by chapter 684 of the laws of 1938 and subdivision 11 14 as amended by chapter 154 of the laws of 2007, are amended to read as 15 follows:

16 1. Bank. The term, "bank," when used in this chapter, unless a differ-17 ent meaning appears from the context, means any corporation, other than 18 a trust company, organized under or subject to the provisions of article 19 three or three-C of this chapter.

20 11. Banking organizations. The term, "banking organizations," when 21 used in this chapter, means and includes all banks, trust companies, 22 private bankers, savings banks, safe deposit companies, savings and loan

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 associations, credit unions, public banks organized under article
2 three-C of this chapter, and investment companies.

3 § 4. The banking law is amended by adding a new article 3-C to read as 4 follows:

5 ARTICLE 3-C
6 PUBLIC BANKS

7 Section 156. Definitions.

8 156-a. Sponsors and corporate structure.

9 156-b. Governance.

10 156-c. Public bank charter requirements.

11 156-d. Financial and operations framework.

12 156-e. Public benefit corporations.

13 156-f. Insurance.

14 156-g. Deposits.

15 156-h. Permitted activities of the public bank.

16 156-i. Inconsistency with other laws.

17 156-j. Owners not to be considered bank holding companies.

18 § 156. Definitions. For the purposes of this article:

19 1. "Advisory board" means a board established pursuant to section one 20 hundred fifty-six-b of this article.

21 2. "Affiliate" means:

22 (a) in the case of a person (other than an individual), another person 23 that directly, or indirectly through one of more intermediaries, 24 controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with such 25 person.

26 (b) in the case of an individual, (i) any member of the immediate 27 family of such individual, including parents, siblings, spouse and chil-28 dren (including those by adoption) and any other person who lives in 29 such individual's household; the parents, siblings, spouse, or children 30 (including those by adoption) of such immediate family member, and in 31 any such case any trust whose primary beneficiary is such individual or 32 one or more members of such immediate family and/or such individual's 33 lineal descendants; (ii) the legal representative or guardian of such 34 individual or of any such immediate family member in the event such 35 individual or any such immediate family member becomes mentally incompe-36 tent; and (iii) any person controlling, controlled by or under common 37 control with such individual.

38 (c) As used in this definition, the term "control," including the 39 correlative terms "controlling," "controlled by" and "under common 40 control with," means possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to 41 direct or cause the direction of management or policies (whether through 42 ownership of securities or any partnership or other ownership interest, 43 by contract or otherwise) of a person. Such control shall be presumed to 44 exist where a person owns a ten percent or greater ownership interest in 45 another person.

46 (d) "Person" shall be construed broadly and shall include, without 47 limitation, an individual, a partnership, a limited liability company, a 48 corporation, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, a joint 49 venture, an unincorporated organization and a governmental entity or any 50 department, agency or political subdivision thereof.

51 3. "Bank" means any corporation, other than a trust corporation, 52 organized under or subject to the provisions of this article or article 53 three of this chapter.

54 4. "Board" means a board of directors or board of managers of a public 55 bank.

1 5. "Deposit" means the placing of money with a public bank to be with-2 drawn upon the depositor's demand or under the rules and regulations 3 agreed upon between the bank and the depositor.

4 6. "Economically distressed communities" means those communities where 5 at least thirty percent of residents have incomes that are less than the 6 national poverty level or where the unemployment rate is greater than 7 the national unemployment rate; or economic opportunity zone designated 8 communities, excluding contiguity economic opportunities zones.

9 7. "Independent" means, with respect to a member of a public bank's 10 board of directors, board of managers, or advisory board, an individual 11 who:

12 (a) at the time of his or her election to the board of directors, 13 board of managers, or advisory board of a public bank, is not a holder 14 of any public office within the sponsor; and 15 (b) within the past five years has not been a holder of public office 16 within such sponsor.

17 8. "Local elected official" means any officer elected to a position 18 within a county, city, town, village, school district or district corpo-19 ration, or any agency, department, division, board, commission or bureau 20 thereof; provided, that, such term shall not include any judge or 21 justice of a court.

22 9. "Public bank" means a not-for-profit corporation, a stock corpo-23 ration or limited liability company that is chartered pursuant to this 24 article as a bank.

25 10. "Public bank application documents" means a business plan and 26 application to be submitted to the department of financial services 27 pursuant to section one hundred fifty-six-c of this article for the 28 purpose of chartering a public bank.

29 11. "Public funds" means funds of the sponsor.

30 12. "State or local authority" means a local government or agency, a 31 group of two or more local governments or agencies acting together, 32 special district, a group of two or more special districts acting 33 together, state agency, or a group of two or more state agencies acting 34 together.

35 13. "Sponsor" means one or more cities, towns, villages and/or coun-36 ties within the state of New York.

37 § 156-a. Sponsors and corporate structure. A public bank may be a 38 not-for-profit corporation, a limited liability company or corporation 39 that is formed by a sponsor, subject to the following corporate struc-40 ture requirements:

41 1. The sponsor shall be (a) the sole member of a not-for-profit public 42 bank, (b) the majority and controlling member of a limited liability 43 company public bank, and (c) the majority and controlling shareholder of 44 a corporation public bank.

45 2. A public bank organized as a limited liability company or corpo-46 ration may have other members or shareholders but such other members or 47 shareholders shall only be passive members or shareholders and shall not 48 have any consent or veto rights over any decisions, any removal rights 49 of the sponsor, any rights to elect or choose the board or any voting 50 rights whatsoever.

51 3. Passive members or passive shareholders shall be allowed to invest 52 capital into a public bank so long as such passive members or passive 53 shareholders are approved by the sponsor and the sponsor maintains the 54 right to direct the public bank to purchase the interests of any passive 55 members or shareholders at a market price determined by an independent 56 third party selected by the sponsor at any time.

1 4. The sponsor shall owe no fiduciary duty nor any other duty to 2 passive investors. No passive investor may pursue legal action against 3 the sponsor for any reason other than failure to distribute funds 4 required to be distributed pursuant to governing documents of the public 5 bank.

6 § 156-b. Governance. 1. The public bank shall be governed by a board.
7 Such board shall be composed of nine directors or eleven directors. Each 8 director shall live within the jurisdictional boundaries of the sponsor.

9 2. The sponsor shall determine the public bank's initial board in the 10 following manner:

11 (a) the mayor, or head of the executive branch of government of the 12 sponsor or sponsors, shall select three members;

13 (b) the city council, or legislative branch of the sponsor or sponsors 14 shall select two members;

15 (c) the treasurer, controller or elected official charged with over-16 seeing the sponsor or sponsors' finances and the administration of 17 public funds shall select one member; and 18 (d) the board members selected pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (c) 19 of this subdivision shall, pursuant to a two-thirds majority vote, 20 select at their discretion either three or five additional board 21 members, with the sole purpose of maximizing board diversity to include 22 a variety of the sponsor's community constituents.

23 3. At least two board members selected pursuant to each of paragraphs 24 (a) through (c) of subdivision two of this section shall be individuals 25 with experience in the finance industry or the business of banking with 26 an emphasis on community lending.

27 4. At least one board member selected pursuant to each of paragraphs 28 (a) through (c) of subdivision two of this section shall be an individ-29 ual representative of at least one of the community stakeholders prior-30 itized by the public bank's underwriting and financial policies as 31 reflected in section one hundred fifty-six-h of this article.

32 5. When a board member resigns or leaves office for any reason, the 33 individual selected to replace such board member shall be selected by 34 whatever branch of government or the board selected their predecessor 35 under paragraphs (a) through (d) of subdivision two of this section.

36 6. The sponsor and board will take all steps necessary to ensure that 37 the composition of the board reflects the composition of the population 38 in terms of people of color and women.

39 7. A majority of the board shall be composed of independent directors 40 who are not government employees. The chair of the board must be an 41 independent director.

42 8. The board shall set policy for the public bank; provided that 43 neither the board nor any director shall be involved in day to day deci-44 sions regarding particular instruments. Management decisions shall be 45 made independently by bank management who shall be appointed by the 46 board consistent with bank policy.

47 9. The board may establish one or more committees to manage the public 48 bank.

49 10. The board shall adhere to all reporting requirements under this 50 chapter regarding the public bank's financial condition.

51 11. A public bank shall form one or more advisory boards in order to 52 provide advice and carry out any other duties, as determined by the 53 public bank, including the following:

54 (a) provide input to the board regarding ways to accomplish its 55 mission;

1 (b) ensure that the board follows strict ethical standards as deter-2 mined by the sponsor in the public bank's governing documents, through 3 the approval of bylaws to govern the board's management;

4 (c) provide technical advice as needed; and 5 (d) provide an annual report to the public and the sponsor evaluating 6 the public bank's performance in relation to its mission, its ethical 7 standards and its financial soundness.

8 12. The sponsor will determine the initial advisory board membership, 9 the term of its members, the qualifications of members and the method 10 for replacing its members, provided that a majority of each advisory 11 board is made up of independent members who are not governmental employ-12 ees. The advisory board shall be composed of no fewer than five and no 13 more than eleven members. Any advisory board member shall live within 14 the jurisdictional boundary of the public bank's sponsor or its members 15 or shareholders.

16 13. Any action required or permitted by this chapter to be taken by 17 the board or an advisory board may be taken at a duly called meeting of 18 such board in accordance with its governing documents or without a meet-19 ing if the action taken is evidenced by one or more written consents 20 describing the action taken and signed by each member of the board or 21 advisory board.

22 § 156-c. Public bank charter requirements. 1. A proposed public bank 23 shall be chartered by the department upon submission of the public bank 24 application documents that demonstrate the following:

25 (a) the purpose of the proposed public bank is consistent with the 26 purposes required under this article;

27 (b) minimum initial capitalization is no less than ten percent of the 28 public bank's projected lending total for the first year of operation 29 after receipt of its charter;

30 (c) adequate reserves and liquidity exist to cover the public bank's 31 obligations relating to deposit withdrawals and defaulted loans;

32 (d) the qualifications of the proposed directors;

33 (e) the qualifications of the proposed chief executive officer and 34 management team;

35 (f) an organizational chart;

36 (g) policies and procedures prohibiting any elected official, or 37 affiliate of such officials, from receiving a loan or other financial 38 assistance from the public bank;

39 (h) procedures for obtaining fidelity insurance;

40 (i) sufficient internal audits and controls;

41 (j) a pro forma financial statement projecting assets, liabilities, 42 income and expenses for no less than a three year period;

43 (k) the impact of the public bank on the sponsor's financial condi-
44 tion;

45 (l) a plan to comply with the community reinvestment act and fair 46 lending requirements, pursuant to section two hundred ninety-six-a of 47 the executive law;

48 (m) a certificate of incorporation; and

49 (n) a narrative business plan describing the banking services to be 50 provided.

51 2. The public bank may but shall not be required to collateralize 52 deposits from the sponsor or any other governmental entity with collat-53 eral determined by the public bank in its governing documents.

54 3. The public bank application documents are not required to provide 55 that the public bank will receive deposits in its initial three years of 1 operation, and not receiving deposits in the initial three years of 2 operation shall not be a reason for disapproval by the superintendent.

3 4. Public bank application documents are not required to include a 4 market, public convenience and advantage, competitive impact or a bank 5 premises analysis or address any other matters other than those listed 6 in subdivision one of this section.

7 5. Public bank charter applications that do not conflict with any 8 requirements expressly provided in subdivision one of this section shall 9 be liberally granted by the superintendent, and any decision by the 10 superintendent refusing to grant permission for the operation of a 11 public bank may be appealed by the sponsor to the governor within thirty 12 days from the date of such decision, and the governor shall have the 13 power to affirm, reverse, or modify such decision by the superintendent 14 in the governor's sole discretion.

15 § 156-d. Financial and operations framework. 1. The public bank may 16 raise capital through:

17 (a) the receipt and leverage of public deposits, including but not 18 limited to the general fund, reserve fund, special district or capital 19 fund,

20 (b) sponsor equity contributions,

21 (c) passive member or shareholder equity contributions,

22 (d) sale of corporate debt to sponsor, and 23 (e) sale of corporate debt to third parties.

24 2. The public bank shall have all the rights and powers conferred by 25 articles three and fifteen of this chapter, which must be exercised in a 26 manner consistent with its mission.

27 3. All lending and actions of the public bank shall abide by the 28 United Nations declaration on the rights of indigenous peoples.

29 4. The sponsor may prohibit investments and loans that may benefit any 30 type of designated business including the fossil fuel industry, weapons 31 or gun manufacturers, military systems companies, private prisons, immi-32 gration detention facilities, companies engaged in offshore tax avoid-33 ance or exploitative business or labor practices or the tobacco indus-34 try, all as determined by the sponsor in the public bank's governing 35 documents.

36 5. The public bank shall be exempt from state, county, and municipal 37 taxes and licenses, of any kind, including income, capital gain, real 38 estate and mortgage recording taxes.

39 6. The public bank shall not be sold to or merged with another entity 40 unless such entity has a public bank charter.

41 § 156-e. Public benefit corporations. 1. A public bank may, but is not 42 required to, incorporate as a benefit corporation under article seven-43 teen of the business corporation law.

44 2. A public bank may, but is not required to, identify in its certif-45 icate of incorporation a specific public benefit, consistent with the 46 provisions of article seventeen of the business corporation law. Specif-47 ic public benefits within the meaning of this section include, but are 48 not limited to, strengthening local economies, supporting community 49 economic development, addressing infrastructure and housing needs for 50 localities, and providing banking services to unbanked or underbanked 51 communities.

52 § 156-f. Insurance. A public bank shall obtain and maintain deposit 53 insurance consistent with section thirty-two of this chapter to the 54 extent that it accepts deposits from any third party that is not in 55 excess of two hundred fifty thousand dollars.

1 § 156-g. Deposits. 1. The board shall develop a plan, subject to 2 approval by the advisory board, to accept and manage deposits.

3 2. The comptroller or chief financial officer of the sponsor shall be 4 authorized to deposit public funds in the public bank, provided that the 5 public bank's business plan permits the comptroller or chief financial 6 officer to meet the short or intermediate-term liquidity needs of the 7 sponsor.

8 3. The public bank may accept deposits, but shall be exempt from the 9 requirements of section one hundred five of this chapter.

10 4. The public bank may accept deposits from any source and funds from 11 any source, including federal funds.

12 § 156-h. Permitted activities of the public bank. 1. The public bank 13 shall have all the rights and powers conferred by articles three and 14 fifteen of this chapter, which shall be exercised in a manner consistent 15 with its mission. The public bank may limit and define its rights and 16 powers in the charter that it submits pursuant to section one hundred 17 fifty-six-c of this article, but it is the intention to grant any public 18 bank created under this law the full rights and powers that any bank 19 would be permitted to exercise under New York's banking laws, subject to 20 those limitations that will be approved by the department.

21 2. Within the overall underwriting and financial policies of the 22 public bank, the public bank shall maximize and prioritize loans 23 supporting worker cooperatives, community land trusts, low-income and 24 affordable housing, renewable energy, infrastructure development, small 25 businesses, small farms, minority- and women-owned business enterprises, 26 students in need of low-cost education financing or refinancing student 27 loan debts, and other initiatives that fulfill the public bank's 28 mission, with a focus on serving underserved and underbanked communi-29 ties, as well as those within economically distressed communities.

30 § 156-i. Inconsistency with other laws. 1. A public bank shall comply 31 with all requirements of this chapter, the financial services law, the 32 state finance law, the local finance law, the general municipal law, the 33 not-for-profit corporation law, and all other relevant provisions of 34 state or local law, except to the extent that a requirement of any of 35 those laws is inconsistent with a provision of this article, in which 36 case the provisions of this article shall prevail.

37 2. Notwithstanding any provision of state or local law, a county or 38 other state or local authority may lend its credit to any public bank.

39 3. Notwithstanding any provision of state or local law, any state or 40 local authority may invest in commercial paper, debt securities or other 41 obligations of a public bank.

42 4. Notwithstanding any provision of state or local law, a public bank 43 shall be eligible to receive state and local authority money.

44 § 156-j. Owners not to be considered bank holding companies. For the 45 purposes of section one hundred thirty-two of this chapter, any sponsor, 46 person or entity, including a state or local authority, that owns, 47 controls, or holds an ownership interest in a public bank is not a bank 48 holding company by reason of that ownership interest.

49 § 5. Section 98 of the state finance law is amended by adding a new 50 subdivision 7-a to read as follows:

51 7-a. Commercial paper, debt securities, bonds, notes, or other obli-
52 gations of a public bank, as defined in article three-C of the banking 53 law.

54 § 6. Paragraph d of subdivision 1 of section 10 of the general municip-55 al law, as amended by chapter 623 of the laws of 1998, is amended to 56 read as follows:

1 d. "Bank" shall mean a bank or public bank as defined by the banking 2 law or a national banking association located and authorized to do busi-3 ness in New York.
4 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately.
