AN ACT to amend the alcoholic beverage control law, in relation to authorizing retail licensees to purchase beer with a business payment card; and to repeal certain provisions of such law relating thereto

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraphs h and j of subdivision 1 of section 101-aaa of the alcoholic beverage control law, as added by a chapter of the laws of 2019, amending the alcoholic beverage control law relating to authorizing retail licenses to purchase beer, wine or liquor with a business payment card, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 4241-A and A. 6701-A, are amended to read as follows:

- 7 h. "Business payment card" means: (1) any credit card issued to a retail licensee for business or commercial use pursuant to an agreement 9 that allows the holder thereof to obtain goods and services on the cred-10 it of the issuer or a debit card that provides access to a bank account 11 of a retail licensee; (2) a credit or debit card from an issuer accepted 12 by the manufacturer or wholesaler as permitted by the authority in regu-13 lation; and (3) such credit card shall not include cards in which a 14 manufacturer or wholesaler has a financial interest or cards by which 15 their use benefits a manufacturer or wholesaler. Such card must be 16 issued in the same name as a retail licensee and registered to the same 17 address as the address on the retail license, or as otherwise permitted 18 by the authority in regulation.
- j. "Final business payment card invoice amount" means the amount charged by a manufacturer or wholesaler to a retail licensee pursuant to paragraph (c) of subdivision two of this section; and shall equal the final cash invoice amount plus [remuneration for surcharges and fees incurred by a manufacturer or wholesaler as a result of such a transaction, which shall be calculated by multiplying the final cash invoice amount by a rate determined annually by the authority] three percent of the final cash invoice amount. The three percent represents the surcharges and fees that are charged to the manufacturer or wholesaler by the business payment card issuer or a person or entity associated with the issuer.

- § 2. Subdivision 2-a of section 101-aaa of the alcoholic beverage control law, as added by a chapter of the laws of 2019, amending the alcoholic beverage control law relating to authorizing retail licenses to purchase beer, wine or liquor with a business payment card, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 4241-A and A. 6701-A, is amended and a new subdivision 2-b is added to read as follows:
- 2-a. A manufacturer or wholesaler that accepts business payment cards shall clearly state the final cash invoice amount and the final business payment card invoice amount on an invoice provided to a retail licensee. Nothing in this section shall preclude, or permit a manufacturer or wholesaler to [preclude] prevent, a retail licensee that receives such an invoice from electing to use any other form of payment method permitted pursuant to subdivision two of this section following receipt of such invoice.
- 2-b. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to require any manufacturer or wholesaler to accept business payment cards as a method of payment by any retail licensee, provided that if such payment method is made available it shall be available on equal terms to all retail licensees.
- § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 55-b of the alcoholic beverage control law, as amended by a chapter of the laws of 2019, amending the alcoholic beverage control law relating to authorizing retail licenses to purchase beer, wine or liquor with a business payment card, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 4241-A and A. 6701-A, is amended to read as follows:
- 2. No brewer or beer wholesaler may increase the price per case, draft package or special package of beer sold to beer wholesalers or retail licensees until at least one hundred eighty days have elapsed since his last price decrease on such case, draft package or special package, provided, however, that the brewer or beer wholesaler may increase any price established by him at any time in the amount of any direct tax increase on beer or [in the amount necessary] three percent of the final cash invoice amount to reasonably remunerate such wholesaler for surcharges and fees incurred for business payment card payments, as [determined by the authority pursuant to] provided for by paragraph j of subdivision one of section one hundred one-aaa of this chapter, or on containers thereof, actually paid by such brewer or beer wholesaler, and provided further, however, that if a brewer or beer wholesaler has increased his price to beer wholesalers at any time pursuant to the provisions hereof, the beer wholesaler may increase the price established by him on such package in an amount equal to the direct price increase to the beer wholesaler. The price per case, draft package or special package of beer sold to beer wholesalers or retail licensees on the first day of the month following the effective date of this act shall be deemed the base price, to or from which price increases or decreases may be made in accordance with the provisions of this section.
- § 4. Paragraphs g, h, and i of subdivision 1 of section 101-aa of the alcoholic beverage control law, as added by a chapter of the laws of 2019 amending the alcoholic beverage control law relating to authorizing retail licenses to purchase beer, wine or liquor with a business payment card, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S.4241-A and A.6701-A, are REPEALED.
- § 5. Subdivision 2 of section 101-aa of the alcoholic beverage control law, as amended by a chapter of the laws of 2019 amending the alcoholic
