IN ASSEMBLY

February 19, 2020

Introduced by M. of A. GRIFFIN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to the timing of discovery

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 245.10 of the 2 criminal procedure law, as added by section 2 of part LLL of chapter 59 3 of the laws of 2019, is amended and two new paragraphs (d) and (e) are 4 added to read as follows:

5 (a) The prosecution shall perform its initial discovery obligations
6 under subdivision one of section 245.20 of this article as soon as prac-7 ticable but not later than [~~fifteen~~] sixty calendar days after the 8 defendant's arraignment on an indictment, superior court information, 9 prosecutor's information, information, simplified information, misdemea-
10 nor complaint or felony complaint. Portions of materials claimed to be 11 non-discoverable may be withheld pending a determination and ruling of 12 the court under section 245.70 of this article; but the defendant shall 13 be notified in writing that information has not been disclosed under a 14 particular subdivision of such section, and the discoverable portions of 15 such materials shall be disclosed to the extent practicable. When the 16 discoverable materials are exceptionally voluminous or, despite dili-17 gent, good faith efforts, are otherwise not in the actual possession of 18 the prosecution, the time period in this paragraph may be stayed by up 19 to an additional thirty calendar days without need for a motion pursuant 20 to subdivision two of section 245.70 of this article.

21 (d) In the event the production of discovery would otherwise conflict 22 or otherwise violate paragraph (c) or (d) of subdivision one of section 23 30.30 of this chapter, such time frames within such section 30.30 would 24 be extended in the case of paragraph (c) of subdivision one of section 25 30.30 of this chapter, an additional thirty days, and in the case of 26 paragraph (d) of subdivision one of section 30.30 of this chapter, an 27 additional sixty days. The prosecution shall be responsible for notify-28 ing the court of such time extension, and must certify to the court that

1 all discovery has been completed, within the period stated in this para-
2 graph, in order for the extension provisions of this section to apply.

3 (e) In no event shall this section apply to those cities having a
4 population of one million or more. In such instances, the prosecution 5 shall perform its initial discovery obligations under subdivision one of 6 section 245.20 of this article as soon as practicable but not later than 7 fifteen calendar days after the defendant's arraignment on an indict-
8 ment, superior court information, prosecutor's information, information, 9 simplified information, misdemeanor complaint or felony complaint.
10 Portions of materials claimed to be non-discoverable may be withheld 11 pending a determination and ruling of the court under section 245.70 of 12 this article; but the defendant shall be notified in writing that infor-13 mation has not been disclosed under a particular subdivision of such 14 section, and the discoverable portions of such materials shall be 15 disclosed to the extent practicable. When the discoverable materials are 16 exceptionally voluminous or, despite diligent, good faith efforts, are 17 otherwise not in the actual possession of the prosecution, the time in 18 this paragraph may be stayed by up to an additional thirty calendar days 19 without need for a motion pursuant to subdivision two of section 245.70 20 of this article.

21 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
