LBD06485-01-9

1 (9) two thousand dollars for nine years of consecutive qualifying 2 service; or

3 (10) two thousand five hundred dollars for ten or more years of 4 consecutive qualifying service;

5 shall be allowed against the tax imposed by section six hundred one of 6 this part, to each resident of the state who serves as a volunteer fire-
7 fighter as defined in subdivision one of section three of the volunteer 8 firefighters' benefit law or a volunteer ambulance worker as defined in 9 subdivision one of section three of the volunteer ambulance workers' 10 benefit law or as a member of a volunteer reserve force or as a member 11 of an auxiliary police department or as a member of a volunteer emergen-
12 cy medical services personnel squad. If a volunteer department member 13 has a year where the qualifying service level is not met, then he or she 14 shall receive the credit provided for in paragraph one of this 15 subsection the next time they have a qualifying service year.

16 For the purposes of this subsection "qualifying service" shall mean 17 service where such person has been a member in good standing with a 18 volunteer department for a minimum of one year, has completed all 19 required training courses as required by the state of New York and is 20 certified by the chief emergency service coordinator of the county that 21 the volunteer department serves to have attended at least forty percent 22 of the activities of the volunteer department that he or she is a member 23 of.

24 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
