AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the reporting of domestic violence incidents

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 646 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 346 of the laws of 2007, is amended by adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

3. An individual who has been the victim in this state of a family offense as defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law or section eight hundred twelve of the family court act may, upon alleging that it would be a hardship for him or her to make such complaint in the local jurisdiction in which such offense occurred, make a complaint to any local law enforcement agency in the state regardless of where the act took place. Such local law enforcement agency shall take a police report of the matter, as well as prepare a domestic violence incident report as defined in subdivision fifteen of section eight hundred thirty-seven of this chapter and provide the complainant with a copy of such report free of charge. A copy of the police report and completed domestic violence incident report shall be promptly forwarded to the appropriate law enforcement agency with juris-
