12-b. Employees of a gunsmith or dealer in firearms. (a) No person shall be employed by a gunsmith or dealer in firearms for duties that include handling, selling, or otherwise disposing of firearms, if such person is prohibited from receiving or possessing firearms under federal law or if such person would be ineligible for a license to possess firearms under paragraph (c) or (e) of subdivision one of this section.

(b) No gunsmith or dealer in firearms shall employ a person whose duties include handling, selling, or otherwise disposing of firearms, absent an exemption pursuant to paragraphs one and two of subdivision a of section 265.20 of this chapter, unless: (i) such person is twenty-one years of age or older or is a member of the United States armed forces or has been honorably discharged therefrom, and such employee has been issued a valid employment certificate from the division of criminal justice services; or (ii) such person has obtained and possesses a valid license issued under the provisions of this section or section 400.01 of this article.

(c) Applications for employment certificates shall be submitted by the applicant's prospective employer to the division of criminal justice services in a form approved by such division. Applications must contain, at a minimum, the information required to conduct a background check in the national instant criminal background check system. All applications must be signed and verified by the applicant.

(d) Upon receipt of an application for an employment certificate, the division of criminal justice services shall conduct a background check in the national instant criminal background check system to determine whether the applicant is qualified to receive or possess a firearm under state and federal law. If the results of the background check indicate that there is no information that would disqualify the applicant from receiving or possessing a firearm under state or under federal law, the division of criminal justice services shall document such result on an employment certificate. If the background check results in a "delayed" response as described in 28 C.F.R. § 25.6, the division of criminal justice services shall not certify the applicant for employment pending receipt of a follow-up "proceed" response from the national instant criminal background check system.

(e) The division of criminal justice services shall issue to qualifying employees an employment certificate, which shall certify that the holder of such certificate is eligible to handle, sell, or otherwise dispose of firearms or weapons on behalf of the gunsmith or dealer in firearms. Such certificate shall become invalid upon the termination of the employee's employment. Such certificate shall have the effect of authorizing such employee to handle, sell, or otherwise dispose of those firearms that are lawfully possessed, sold or disposed of by the gunsmith or dealer in firearms only while such employee is actually conducting business on behalf of the gunsmith or dealer in firearms notwithstanding the fact that such weapons may not be the type the employee would otherwise be licensed or authorized to possess under New York law. When an employee is conducting business on behalf of a gunsmith or dealer in firearms at any location other than the premises where such employee works, the employee shall have in his or her possession a copy of his or her employment certificate or valid license issued under the provisions of this section or section 400.01 of this article or documentation of the employee's exemption based on prior employment. Copies of such certificates or licenses or documentation of exemption shall be maintained by the gunsmith or dealer in firearms on the premises where such employee works. All certificates, licenses,

6 crate or container that contains a firearm or firearms, from one 7 location to another within the premises of a gunsmith or dealer in 8 firearms.

9 (g) Any employment in violation of this subdivision shall constitute a 10 violation on the part of both the employee and the gunsmith or dealer in 11 firearms.

12 § 7. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 13 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the division of crim-14 inal justice services shall promulgate any rules or regulations or 15 approve any forms necessary for applications for employment certificates 16 to be submitted to and approved by such division and for employment
17 certificates to be issued by such division pursuant to subdivision 12-b 18 of section 400.00 of the penal law as added by section six of this act, 19 and shall begin to issue such certificates to qualifying employees
20 before the one hundred eightieth day after this act shall have become a 21 law.
