AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to enacting "Harper's Law" requiring tip restraint devices on certain furniture

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as "Harper's Law".

2 § 2. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 399-
3 ii to read as follows:

4 § 399-ii. Furniture tip restraint device. 1. As used in this section:

5 (a) "furniture" shall mean a clothing storage unit that is freestand-6 ing and over thirty inches in height including but not limited to 7 chests, dressers, armoires, and bureaus; and

8 (b) "tip restraint device" shall mean a mechanism that is designed to 9 reduce the risk of furniture tipping over. Such mechanism may include 10 straps, wall brackets, steel cables, or plug and screw sets.

11 2. No person, firm, partnership, association, limited liability compa-
12 ny, corporation, or other entity shall sell or offer to sell new furni-
13 ture to a consumer at retail unless the furniture conforms to standards
14 endorsed or established by the federal Consumer Product Safety Commis-
15 sion or a standard established by ASTM International which requires 16 furniture to contain a tip restraint device and carry a permanent warn-
17 ing label, including but not limited to, ASTM F2057.

18 3. A person, firm, partnership, association, limited liability compa-
19 ny, corporation, or other entity may sell or offer to sell new furniture 20 that does not meet the requirements in subdivision two of this section 21 if the retailer: (a) maintains in stock and prominently displays within

1 the store tip restraint devices available for sale that are compatible
2 with such furniture; and (b) posts a notice, in a conspicuous location
3 which may be easily seen or reached by customers, that, in legible
4 format, states: "Certain furniture may become unstable and tip over,
5 leading to possible injury or death. Tip restraint devices may prevent 6 tipping of furniture when properly installed."

7 4. Any person, firm, partnership, association, limited liability 8 company, corporation, or other entity that sells or offers to sell new 9 furniture to a consumer at retail in violation of the provisions of this 10 section shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed five hundred 11 dollars for each violation.

12 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 13 have become a law.
