AN ACT to amend the public health law and the penal law, in relation to fentanyl analogues

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 3302 of the public health law is amended by adding a new subdivision 44 to read as follows:

44. "Fentanyl analogue" (a) means any substance that is structurally related to fentanyl by one or more of the following modifications:

(i) replacement of the phenyl portion of the phenethyl group by any monocycle, whether or not further substituted in or on the monocycle;

(ii) substitution in or on the phenethyl group with alkyl, alkenyl, alkoxy, hydroxyl, halo, haloalkyl, amino or nitro groups;

(iii) substitution in or on the piperidine ring with alkyl, alkenyl, alkoxy, ester, ether, hydroxyl, halo, haloalkyl, amino or nitro groups;

(iv) replacement of the aniline ring with any aromatic monocycle whether or not further substituted in or on the aromatic monocycle; and/or

(v) replacement of the N-propionyl group by another acyl group.

(b) such term shall not include:

(i) fentanyl;

(ii) any substance for which there is an approved new drug application by the Federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA); or

(iii) with respect to a particular person, any substance, if an exemption is in effect for investigational use for that person, as provided by 21 U.S.C. § 355, to the extent conduct with respect to the substance is pursuant to such exemption.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
