2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 15, 2019

Introduced by Sen. BROOKS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Finance

AN ACT to establish the residential real property tax relief for public education task force

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature finds that the 2 current primary and secondary education funding system, which is based 3 largely upon real property taxation, is antiquated and creates serious 4 disparities in educational opportunity and inequities with regard to 5 distribution of the system's financial burden. The quality of education 6 that children receive varies widely by geographic region, as does the 7 opportunity for children to participate in extracurricular activities.
8 In addition, taxpayers throughout the state receive real property tax 9 bills from their local school districts based on the value of their 10 homes, which is subject to multiple factors beyond their control, rather 11 than their financial ability to pay, creating serious regional 12 distortions in the relative cost of living. The legislature finds that 13 these distortions are greatly exacerbated by the recent enactment of the 14 federal tax cuts and jobs act of 2017, which will limit the deductibili-15 ty of state and local taxes to 10,000 dollars beginning in the next 16 fiscal year, effectively eliminating one of the few mitigating factors 17 against high property taxes for homeowners in certain regions of the 18 state, and creating undue hardship for families throughout the state.
19 The legislature further finds that our children should not be penalized 20 based upon the geographic location of their home, nor should financial 21 support for the educational system fall more heavily on those who are 22 less able to bear the burden. The legislature therefore orders that a 23 task force be created to conduct a comprehensive examination of the 24 current funding system, and to make recommendations for a long-term, 25 statewide solution that will shift the base resource of primary and

2 personal income tax. Such new funding methodology must be flexible 3 enough to ensure efficient responsiveness to certain dynamic factors
4 with regard to school aid from the state of New York, including but not 5 limited to the changing demographic profile of the student body of indi-
6 vidual schools; technology advancements and requirements; school safety 7 and security; mandated educational programs; staff development; programs 8 regarding drugs, bullying, social media, gang violence and other similar 9 programs that emerge in response to salient issues; and changing federal 10 policies that directly impact all New Yorkers.

11 § 2. Residential real property tax relief for public education task
12 force. There is hereby created the residential real property tax relief 13 for public education task force that shall consist of 43 members.

31 senate, two shall have been certified by the department of education and 32 have at least ten years of classroom teaching experience at the primary
33 or secondary level, one shall be the parent of a student in the public
34 school system, and one shall have at least ten years experience in a 35 school fiscal or budgetary capacity; and

36 (5) Of the four members appointed by the minority leader of the 37 senate, two shall have been certified by the department of education and
38 have at least ten years of classroom teaching experience at the primary
39 or secondary level, one shall be the parent of a student in the public
40 school system, and one shall have at least ten years experience in a 41 school fiscal or budgetary capacity.

42 § 4. Powers and duties. (1) The residential real property tax relief 43 for public education task force shall, over the course of the three 44 years subsequent to this section having become law, conduct an in-depth 45 analysis of the funding system for primary and secondary education that 46 will make recommendations on the implementation of a new methodology
47 that will change the current system paradigm from one highly dependent 48 on local property taxes to one that is largely state-funded through 49 personal income taxes. Such analysis shall include, but not be limited 50 to (i) a historical examination of the current system, demonstrating the 51 etymology of the current funding system; (ii) an examination of regional 52 cost factors and their relation to regional student opportunity dispari-
53 ties; (iii) the establishment of educational economic development zones,
54 as defined in section five of this act; (iv) the development of a
55 revised school funding program for all special needs and special educa-56 tion students based on the regional cost factors within respective

1 educational economic development zones; (v) the establishment of best
2 practices programs purchasing, budget and fiscal plan development, bene-
3 fits management and the management of reserves for each educational 4 economic zone; (vi) the development of a new methodology that will shift 5 the fundamental funding source for primary and secondary education from 6 real property taxation to the state personal income tax, such methodol-7 ogy shall take the conditional variables of each educational economic 8 zone into account in its determination of the distribution of state
9 funds; (vii) the development of best practice objectives in aid distrib-10 ution to ensure that funding in all districts is put to the best and 11 most efficient use; and (viii) the provision of an implementation strat-
12 egy for the new methodology that will limit as much as feasibly possible 13 any disruption during the transition.

14 (2) The commissioner of education shall serve as the chair of the task
15 force. The task force is authorized to consult with education and taxa-16 tion and academic professionals in addition to its members, and to 17 compensate such expert participation for actual incurred expenses. The 18 task force may utilize agency staff, space and equipment as necessary.
19 Task force members shall receive no compensation for their partic-
20 ipation, other than for actual incurred expenses.

21 (3) The task force shall meet in its entirety in July and December 22 each year at a single physical location, and the chair shall have the 23 power to call additional meetings as he or she deems necessary and 24 appropriate. Electronic participation shall be permitted for those 25 members who are unable to attend in person. An agenda for each meeting 26 shall be made public at least two days prior to the meeting date; meet-27 ings shall be visually recorded; and meeting minutes shall be kept.

28 (4) The task force shall publish a report containing all research 29 findings and recommendations, three years after the date on which this 30 act shall have become law. Such report shall outline and provide crit-
31 ical detail of each task force recommendation, and a comprehensive tran-32 sition and implementation strategy. The task force shall transmit the 33 report to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the 34 speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the senate and the 35 minority leader of the assembly no later than three years after the date 36 that this act shall have become a law.

37 (5) The task force shall establish a website on the internet, on which 38 it shall save and make available all documentation, provide a venue for 39 public comment, provide visual access to its meetings, meeting agendas, 40 minutes, and provide a copy of its report.

41 § 5. Educational economic zones. Educational economic zones shall mean 42 geographical regions determined by unique variables including, but not 43 limited to (i) individual and cumulative personal income; (ii) the level
44 of employment as determined by the United States department of commerce,
45 bureau of labor statistics for the twelve-month period prior to January 46 first of the calendar year in which the school budget begins; (iii)
47 local industry, as identified by the United States bureau of the census
48 through the North American industry classification system; (iv) infras-
49 tructure construction and maintenance costs; (v) educational support
50 services; and (vi) student demographics, including special education 51 students and those with special needs.

52 § 6. This act shall take effect immediately.
