Introduced by Sen. GALLIVAN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Crime Victims, Crime and Correction

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to third party statements to the parole board

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subparagraph (A) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of 2 section 259-i of the executive law, as amended by chapter 130 of the 3 laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:

4 (A) Discretionary release on parole shall not be granted merely as a 5 reward for good conduct or efficient performance of duties while 6 confined but after considering if there is a reasonable probability 7 that, if such inmate is released, he will live and remain at liberty 8 without violating the law, and that his release is not incompatible with 9 the welfare of society and will not so deprecate the seriousness of his 10 crime as to undermine respect for law. In making the parole release 11 decision, the procedures adopted pursuant to subdivision four of section 12 two hundred fifty-nine-c of this article shall require that the follow-13 ing be considered: (i) the institutional record including program goals 14 and accomplishments, academic achievements, vocational education, train-15 ing or work assignments, therapy and interactions with staff and 16 inmates; (ii) performance, if any, as a participant in a temporary 17 release program; (iii) release plans including community resources, 18 employment, education and training and support services available to the 19 inmate; (iv) any deportation order issued by the federal government 20 against the inmate while in the custody of the department and any recom-
21 mendation regarding deportation made by the commissioner of the depart-22 ment pursuant to section one hundred forty-seven of the correction law;
23 (v) any current or prior statement made to the board by the crime victim 24 or the victim's representative, where the crime victim is deceased or is

1 mentally or physically incapacitated; (vi) the length of the determinate
2 sentence to which the inmate would be subject had he or she received a 3 sentence pursuant to section 70.70 or section 70.71 of the penal law for 4 a felony defined in article two hundred twenty or article two hundred 5 twenty-one of the penal law; (vii) the seriousness of the offense with 6 due consideration to the type of sentence, length of sentence and recom-
7 mendations of the sentencing court, the district attorney, the attorney 8 for the inmate, the pre-sentence probation report as well as consider-9 ation of any mitigating and aggravating factors, and activities follow-10 ing arrest prior to confinement; and (viii) prior criminal record, 11 including the nature and pattern of offenses, adjustment to any previous 12 probation or parole supervision and institutional confinement. The board 13 shall provide toll free telephone access for crime victims. In the case 14 of an oral statement made in accordance with subdivision one of section 15 440.50 of the criminal procedure law, the parole board member shall 16 present a written report of the statement to the parole board. A crime 17 victim's representative shall mean the crime victim's closest surviving 18 relative, the committee or guardian of such person, or the legal repre-
19 sentative of any such person. Such statement submitted by the victim or 20 victim's representative may include information concerning threatening 21 or intimidating conduct toward the victim, the victim's representative, 22 or the victim's family, made by the person sentenced and occurring after 23 the sentencing. Such information may include, but need not be limited 24 to, the threatening or intimidating conduct of any other person who or 25 which is directed by the person sentenced. Any statement by a victim or 26 the victim's representative made to the board shall be maintained by the 27 department in the file provided to the board when interviewing the 28 inmate in consideration of release. A victim or victim's representative 29 who has submitted a written request to the department for the transcript 30 of such interview shall be provided such transcript as soon as it 31 becomes available. Any person interested in the grant or denial of 32 discretionary release under this subdivision shall have the right to 33 submit a written statement of views in support of or in opposition to 34 the granting of discretionary release which the board may consider, 35 except that the board may exclude from consideration information which 36 is irrelevant or unreliable.

37 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
