2. (a) The inspectors shall canvass the ballot scanner tabulated results by printing the results tape in the presence of the watchers and all other persons who may be lawfully within the polling place, giving full view of the tabulated results tape numbers. An inspector shall, under the scrutiny of an inspector of a different political party, either post the results tape or read and announce in the order of the offices as their titles are arranged on the tabulated results tape, in distinct tones the public office or party position, candidate name, political party and the results as shown on the tabulated results tape and then shall announce the number of write-in votes recorded for each office. The inspectors shall also in the same manner post or announce the results for each ballot proposal.

(b) The results on the tabulated results tape shall be entered on or the tabulated results tape (representing the aggregate results of votes cast on the ballot scanner or the results by election district as applicable) shall be affixed to the return of canvass for that ballot scanner or election district pursuant to section 9-120 of this title by an inspector under the scrutiny of an inspector of a different political party, in the space indicated. If any election day paper ballots were hand counted pursuant to this section and subdivision two of section 9-110 of this title, an inspector shall, under the scrutiny of an inspector of a different political party, either post or read and announce the results of such hand count. The tally sheet of any such hand counting shall be signed by the inspectors conducting same and affixed to or recorded on the return of canvass. The return of canvass and tabulated results tape shall be signed by two inspectors of each major political party.

(c) The results tape shall include a certificate which the inspectors shall sign, stating the number of voters as shown on the public counter and the number on the protective counter.

(d) If the machine is provided with a removable electronic or computerized device which records the total of the votes cast on such machine (~~[such device]~~), for purposes of this section a "portable memory device", such device shall be removed from the machine after copies of the results tape, sufficient to meet the requirements of this chapter and the regulations of the board of elections, have been produced. After the portable memory device is removed from the machine, the inspectors

1 shall place such device in the secure envelope or other secure container
2 provided for its return to the board of elections. Such secure container
3 shall be signed by the inspectors upon the securing of the device there-

7 During the proclamation of the result, ample opportunity shall be given 8 to any person lawfully present to compare the results so posted or 9 announced with the sum of the votes appearing on the tabulated results
10 tape and any hand counted election day ballots, if any, and any neces-
11 sary corrections shall then and there be made on the return of canvass 12 by the inspectors. Thereafter, the voting machine shall be closed and 13 locked. The first copy of the results tape for each voting machine
14 should be posted on the wall of the polling place forthwith; provided, 15 however, that if only one copy of such results tape can be printed by 16 any such machine at any election, such copy shall be used in preparation 17 of the returns of canvass required by this title.

18 (b) Election day paper ballots that have not been scanned shall be 19 canvassed and tallied pursuant to this section and sections 9-108 and 20 9-110 of this title.

32 where it has been used, the number on the seal and the number on the 33 protective counter. In the city of New York, police officers or peace

40 table and in plain view of all persons entitled to examine them, until 41 they have been re-packaged and sealed for return to the board of 42 elections as elsewhere provided. If requested by any person entitled to 43 be present the inspectors shall, during the canvass of any ballots, 44 exhibit to him or her the ballot then being canvassed, fully opened and

46 examine it, but no inspector shall allow any ballot to be taken from his 47 or her hand or to be touched by any person but an inspector.

48 § 3. Section 9-106 of the election law, as amended by chapter 334 of

52 voted ballots are opened, the clerks, or if there be no clerks, two 53 inspectors representing different parties designated by the chair, shall 54 account for all of the paper ballots furnished to the election district 55 or poll site. On a reconciliation form supplied by the board of 56 elections, they shall count, verify and record on such form the number

1 of unused ballots, the number of ballots spoiled before delivery to 2 voters in the poll site, the number of ballots spoiled and returned by 3 voters and the number of affidavit ballots cast. These numbers shall be 4 added to the number of ballots cast as recorded by the public counter 5 number appearing on the ballot scanner screen(s) or results tape(s). The 6 sum shall be recorded on the ballot reconciliation form. This resulting 7 number shall be deducted from the number of ballots originally delivered 8 to the election district or poll site, and the remainder number shall be 9 determined to be the number of ballots secured in the emergency ballot 10 box(es) or other secure storage container(s) provided by the board of 11 elections. This remainder number shall be recorded on the ballot recon-
12 ciliation form. If such remainder number is zero and there are no
13 ballots in the emergency ballot box(es) or other such secure 14 container(s), inspectors shall initiate the ballot scanners' close the 15 polls mechanism and produce results tapes[~~, unless in the city of New~~ 16 ~~York such scanners' close the polls mechanism has already been initiated~~ 17 ~~and the results tapes already produced pursuant to paragraph (c) of~~ 18 ~~subdivision one-a of section 9-102 of this title~~]. The clerks or inspec-

20 or container provided by the board of elections, and securely lock or 21 seal each such box or container and record such seal number on the 22 ballot reconciliation form. They shall then sign such reconciliation
23 form. If such remainder number is not zero or there are unscanned voted 24 election day ballots in the emergency ballot box(es) or other such 25 secure container(s), the inspectors or clerks shall proceed with the 26 process provided for in section 9-108 and 9-110 of this title. Upon 27 completion of such process, the clerks or inspectors shall then sepa-
28 rate, label and place each type of ballot in the box(es) or container(s) 29 provided by the board of elections, and securely lock or seal each such 30 box(es) or container(s). They shall then sign such amended reconcil-
31 iation form.

32 § 4. Section 9-110 of the election law, as amended by chapter 334 of 33 the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

34 § 9-110. Canvass; election day paper ballots that have not been 35 scanned; method of. 1. Election day paper ballots that have not been

38 as follows: a bipartisan team of inspectors shall cast such ballots on a 39 ballot scanner, if one is available, at the close of the polls before 40 the tabulated results tape is printed. If a ballot does not scan because 41 of an overvote or blank ballot warning on the ballot scanner screen, the 42 inspectors shall cause the ballot scanner to eject such ballot to be 43 hand counted pursuant to subdivision two of this section.

44 2. Election day paper ballots that cannot be scanned, as provided in 45 subdivision one [~~or one-a~~] of section 9-102 of this title as applicable

49 chair shall take up each ballot in order, turn it face up and announce 50 loudly and distinctly the vote registered on each section, in the order 51 of the sections upon the ballot, or that the ballot is void or the 52 section blank, as the case may be. If more than one person is to be 53 elected to the same office or party position the chair, if the ballot is 54 void or the ballot or section is wholly blank, shall announce as many 55 void or blank votes as there are persons to be elected to the office or 56 party position. On a primary ballot a "section," as the term is used

1 above, shall mean the space occupied by the title of an office or party
2 position, names of candidates therefor and the voting squares therewith.
3 The canvass of each ballot must be completed before the next ballot is 4 taken up. When the tallies of the votes of all such ballots are proven, 5 and the results announced, the inspectors shall affix tally sheets to or 6 record the results from same on the return of canvass.

15 candidate.

17 chapter 334 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

19 section of any such ballot, the board of inspectors shall forthwith and 20 before canvassing any other ballot or section thereof, rule upon the 21 objection. If the objection be continued after this ruling, the chair or 22 an inspector under the scrutiny of an inspector of the opposite party 23 shall write in ink upon the back of the ballot a memorandum of the 24 ruling and objection. The memorandum of the ruling shall be in the words
25 "Counted void", or "Counted blank", or "Counted for (naming the candi-
