AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to menstrual product labeling

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 399-aaaa to read as follows:

§ 399-aaaa. Menstrual product labeling. 1. For purposes of this section:

(a) "ingredient" shall mean a substance present in any quantity in the menstrual product;

(b) "menstrual product" shall mean products used for the purpose of catching menstruation and vaginal discharge, including but not limited to tampons, pads, and menstrual cups. These products may be either disposable or reusable.

2. No later than eighteen months after this section shall have become a law, each package or box containing menstrual products sold in this state shall contain a plain and conspicuous printed list of all ingredients with percentages of the components of the menstrual products. Such list shall either be printed on the package or affixed thereto.

3. Manufacturers of such menstrual products shall also provide labels for product dispensers which provide an individual with a single use menstrual product, where the individual is not obtaining the menstrual product in its original package or box.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1     4. The requirements of this section shall apply in addition to any
2 other labeling requirements established pursuant to any other provision
3 of law.

4     5. Whenever a violation of this section has occurred, a civil penalty
5 of one percent of total annual in-state sales not to exceed up to one
6 thousand dollars per package or box shall be imposed on the manufactur-
7 er. Where the manufacturer has failed to provide a label for product
8 dispensers pursuant to subdivision three of this section, the manufac-
9 turer shall be in violation of this section and a civil penalty of one
10 percent of total annual in-state sales not to exceed up to one thousand
11 dollars shall be imposed.

12     § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 13 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amend-
14 ment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implemen-
15 tation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and 16 completed on or before such effective date.
