- (c) "FSA ID" means a username and password allocated to an individual by the federal government to enable the individual to log in to certain United States department of education websites, and may be used to sign certain documents electronically.
- (d) "Student loan" means any loan to a borrower to finance post-secondary education or expenses related to post-secondary education.
- 9 (e) "Student debt consulting contract" or "contract" means an agree-
 10 ment between a borrower and a consultant under which the consultant
 11 agrees to provide student debt consulting services.
 - (f) "Student debt consultant" or "consultant" means an individual or a corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other business entity that, directly or indirectly, solicits or undertakes employment to provide student debt consulting services. A consultant does not include the following:
- 17 (1) a person or entity who holds or is owed an obligation on the 18 student loan while the person or entity performs services in connection 19 with the student loan;
 - (2) a bank, trust company, private banker, bank holding company, savings bank, savings and loan association, thrift holding company, credit union or insurance company organized under the laws of this state, another state or the United States, or a subsidiary or affiliate of such entity or a foreign banking corporation licensed by the superintendent of financial services or the comptroller of the currency;
 - (3) a bona fide not-for-profit organization that offers counseling or advice to borrowers;
 - (4) a public post-secondary educational institution or private nonprofit post-secondary educational institution; or
 - (5) such other persons as the superintendent prescribes by rule.
 - (g) "Student debt consulting services" means services that a student debt consultant provides to a borrower that the consultant represents will help to achieve any of the following:
 - (1) stop, enjoin, delay, void, set aside, annul, stay or postpone a default, bankruptcy, tax offset, or garnishment proceeding;
 - (2) obtain a forbearance, deferment, or other relief that temporarily halts repayment of a student loan;
 - (3) assist the borrower with preparing or filing documents related to student loan repayment;
 - (4) advise the borrower which student loan repayment plan or forgiveness program to consider;
- 42 (5) enroll the borrower in any student loan repayment, forgiveness, 43 discharge, or consolidation program;
- 44 (6) assist the borrower in re-establishing eligibility for federal 45 student financial assistance;
 - (7) assist the borrower in removing a student loan from default; or
 - (8) educate the borrower about student loan repayment.
- 48 § 702. Prohibitions. A student debt consultant is prohibited from doing the following:
- 50 (a) performing student debt consulting services without a legal writ-
 51 ten, fully-executed contract with a borrower that comports with the
 52 provisions of this article;
- 53 (b) charging for or accepting any payment for student debt consulting
 54 services before the full completion of all such services, including a
 55 payment to be placed in escrow or any other account pending the 56 completion of such services;

- (c) taking a power of attorney from a borrower;
- (d) retaining any original loan document or other original document related to a borrower's student loan;
- 4 (e) requesting that a borrower provide his or her FSA ID to the 5 consultant, or accepting a borrower's FSA ID;
- 6 (f) stating or implying that a borrower will not be able to obtain 7 relief on their own;
 - (g) misrepresenting, expressly or by implication, that:
- 9 (1) the consultant is a part of, affiliated with, or endorsed or spon-10 sored by the government, government loan programs, the United States 11 department of education, or borrowers' student loan servicers; or
- (2) some or all of a borrower's payments to the consultant will be 12 13 applied towards the borrower's student loans.
- 14 (h) inducing or attempting to induce a student debtor to enter a contract that does not fully comply with the provisions of this article; 15 16
- 17 (i) engaging in any unfair, deceptive, or abusive act or practice.
 - § 703. Disclosure requirements. (a) A student debt consultant shall clearly and conspicuously disclose in all advertisements:
 - (1) the actual services the consultant provides to borrowers;
 - (2) that borrowers may apply for consolidation loans from the United States department of education at no cost, including providing a direct link in all online advertising and contact information in all print advertising to the application materials for a Direct Consolidation Loan from the United States department of education;
- 26 (3) that consolidation or other services offered by the consultant may 27 not be the best or only option for borrowers;
- (4) that alternative federal student loan repayment plans, including income-based programs, that do not require consolidating existing federal student loans may be available; and 30
- 31 (5) that borrowers should consider consulting their student loan 32 servicer before signing any legal document concerning a student loan.
- (b) The disclosures required by subsection (a) of this section, if 33 34 disseminated through print media or the internet, shall be clearly and 35 legibly printed or displayed in not less than twelve-point bold type, or, if the advertisement is printed to be displayed in print that is 36 smaller than twelve point, in bold type print that is no smaller than 37 the print in which the text of the advertisement is printed or 38 39 displayed.
- (c) The provisions of this section shall apply to all consultants who 40 41 disseminate advertisements in the state of New York or who intend to 42 directly or indirectly contact a borrower who has a student loan and is 43 in New York state. Consultants shall establish and at all times maintain 44 control over the content, form and method of dissemination of all adver-45 tisements of their services. Further, all advertisements shall be 46 sufficiently complete and clear to avoid the possibility to mislead or 47
- § 704. Student debt consulting contracts. (a) A student debt consult-48 49 ing contract shall:
 - (1) contain the entire agreement of the parties;
 - (2) be provided in writing to the borrower for review before signing;
- (3) be printed in at least twelve-point type and written in the same 52 53 language that is used by the borrower and was used in discussions between the consultant and the borrower to describe the borrower's 54

55 services or to negotiate the contract;

(4) fully disclose the exact nature of the services to be provided by 2 the consultant or anyone working in association with the consultant;

- 3 (5) fully disclose the total amount and terms of compensation for such 4 services;
- 5 (6) contain the name, business address and telephone number of the 6 consultant and the street address, if different, and facsimile number or 7 email address of the consultant where communications from the debtor may 8 be delivered;
- 9 (7) be dated and personally signed by the borrower and the consultant 10 and be witnessed and acknowledged by a New York notary public; and
- 11 (8) contain the following notice, which shall be printed in at least fourteen-point boldface type, completed with the name of the Provider, 12 13 and located in immediate proximity to the space reserved for the 14 debtor's signature:
- "NOTICE REQUIRED BY NEW YORK LAW 15

- You may cancel this contract, without any penalty or obligation, at any 16 17 time before midnight of
- (fifth business day after execution). 18
- (Name of consultant) (the "Consultant") or anyone working for 19
- 20 the Consultant may not take any money from you or ask you for money
- until the consultant has completely finished doing everything this 21
- Contract says the Consultant will do. 22
- You should consider contacting your student loan servicer before signing 23
- any legal document concerning your student loan. In addition, you may 24
- 25 want to visit the New York State Department of Financial Services'
- 26 student lending resource center at www.dfs.ny.gov/studentprotection. The
- 27 law requires that this contract contain the entire agreement between you
- and the Provider. You should not rely upon any other written or oral 28
- 29 agreement or promise."
- 30 The Provider shall accurately enter the date on which the right to 31 cancel ends.
- 32 (b) (1) The borrower has the right to cancel, without any penalty or 33 obligation, any contract with a consultant until midnight of the fifth
- 34
- business day following the day on which the consultant and the borrower
- 35 sign a consulting contract. Cancellation occurs when the borrower, or a representative of the borrower, either delivers written notice of 36
- cancellation in person to the address specified in the consulting 37
- contract or sends a written communication by facsimile, by United States 38
- mail or by an established commercial letter delivery service. A dated 39
- proof of facsimile delivery or proof of mailing creates a presumption 40 that the notice of cancellation has been delivered on the date the 41
- 42 facsimile is sent or the notice is deposited in the mail or with the
- 43 delivery service. Cancellation of the contract shall release the borrow-
- 44 er from all obligations to pay fees or any other compensation to the 45 consultant.
- 46 (2) The contract shall be accompanied by two copies of a form, 47
- captioned "notice of cancellation" in at least twelve-point bold type. 48 This form shall be attached to the contract, shall be easily detachable,
- 49 and shall contain the following statement written in the same language
- as used in the contract, and the contractor shall insert accurate infor-50

- 10 Name of Borrower:
- Signature of Borrower: 11
- 12 Date:
- (3) Within ten days following receipt of a notice of cancellation 13 14 given in accordance with this subsection, the consultant shall return 15 any original contract and any other documents signed by or provided by 16 the borrower. Cancellation shall release the borrower of all obligations to pay any fees or compensation to the consultant. 17
- § 705. Penalties and other provisions. (a) If the superintendent finds, after notice and hearing, that a consultant has intentionally 20 violated any provision of this article, the superintendent may: (1) make null and void any agreement between the borrower and the consultant; and 21 (2) impose a civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars for each violation.
- (b) If the consultant violates any provision of this article and the borrower suffers damage because of the violation, the borrower may recover actual and consequential damages and costs from the consultant in an action based on this article. If the consultant recklessly violates any provision of this article, the court may award attorneys' fees and costs. If the consultant intentionally violates any provision 30 of this article, the court may award treble damages, attorneys' fees and
- (c) Any provision of a student debt consulting contract that attempts or purports to limit the liability of the consultant under this article 33 shall be null and void. Inclusion of such provision shall at the option of the borrower render the contract void. Any provision in a contract which attempts or purports to require arbitration of any dispute arising under this article shall be void at the option of the borrower. Any waiver of the provisions of this article shall be void and unenforceable as contrary to public policy.
- (d) The provisions of this article are not exclusive and are in addi-40 41 tion to any other requirements, rights, remedies, and penalties provided 42 by law.
- § 706. Rules and regulations. In addition to such powers as may 43 44 otherwise be prescribed by this chapter, the superintendent is hereby authorized and empowered to promulgate such rules and regulations as may 45 46 in the judgment of the superintendent be consistent with the purposes of 47 this article, or appropriate for the effective administration of this article. 48
- § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 49 50 it shall have become a law.
