AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York and the tax law, in relation to the earned income tax credit

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph 1 of subdivision (d) of section 11-1706 of the 2 administrative code of the city of New York, as added by local law
3 number 39 of the city of New York for the year 2004, is amended to read 4 as follows:

5 (1) For taxable years beginning after two thousand three, a credit 6 against the city personal income tax shall be allowed, equal to five 7 percent of the earned income credit allowed under section thirty-two of 8 the internal revenue code for the same taxable year; and for taxable
9 years beginning after two thousand twenty, a credit against the city 10 personal income tax shall be allowed, equal to fifteen percent of the 11 earned income credit allowed under section thirty-two of the internal 12 revenue code for the same taxable year.

13 § 2. Paragraph 1 of subsection (f) of section 1310 of the tax law, as 14 added by section 2 of part V of chapter 60 of the laws of 2004, is 15 amended to read as follows:

16 (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, any 17 city having a population of one million or more, acting through its 18 local legislative body, is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and 19 amend local laws granting in any such city, for taxable years beginning 20 after two thousand three, a credit against the city personal income tax 21 equal to five percent of the earned income credit allowed under section 22 thirty-two of the internal revenue code for the same taxable year; and
