§ 3. Loan eligibility. An eligible financial institution may make a loan to an affected employee, provided:

(a) The affected employee has provided to the eligible financial institution (i) proof of the employee's status, income and residence in this state, and (ii) the amount of unemployment compensation benefits the employee has received and has been deemed eligible to receive during the shutdown. Such proof may include a paystub or bank statement, a federal employee identification card, the federal tax identification number of the employee's employer and a sworn affidavit from such employee indicating that such employee (A) is currently a federal employee residing in this state, (B) may be eligible to receive back-pay when the shutdown ends, and (C) is not receiving a loan from any other financial institution pursuant to this act.

(c) The loan is made in accordance with the eligible financial institution's underwriting policy and standards, provided further that the affected employee's creditworthiness shall not be a factor used for the purposes of determining eligibility.

(d) The loan agreement shall not (i) require repayment during the grace period, or (ii) charge interest on the principal amount before or during the grace period or for one hundred eighty days after the grace period, provided after such one hundred eighty-day period, the eligible financial institution may charge interest or fees in accordance with such financial institution's lending policy and the terms of the underlying loan agreement.

(e) The loan agreement shall require that the affected employee repay the loan in full not later than one hundred eighty days after the end of the grace period by making at least three, and no more than six, equal installment payments. The loan agreement shall not contain a fee or penalty for the prepayment or early payment of the loan.

(f) The eligible financial institution shall offer credit counseling services or refer such employee to nonprofit credit counselors.

§ 4. Additional loans. An affected employee who has received a loan pursuant to this act may apply to the same eligible financial institution for an additional loan for each thirty-day period such employee remains an affected employee, provided no affected employee may receive more than three loans under the program, and each such employee shall be required to update the eligible financial institution as to the amount of unemployment compensation benefits the employee has received and has been deemed eligible to receive during the shutdown. Each additional loan shall be made in accordance with section three of this act.

§ 5. Collection of loans. (a) On and after one hundred eighty days from the end of the grace period, an eligible financial institution that

1 has made a good-faith effort to collect the outstanding principal from a 2 loan issued pursuant to this act may make a claim to the department for 3 recovery of an amount equal to the outstanding principal for such loan.
4 Prior to the department's approving and submitting a claim to the comp-5 troller, such eligible financial institution shall demonstrate to the 6 satisfaction of the department that the eligible financial institution 7 has made a good-faith effort to collect the outstanding principal from 8 the eligible employee in accordance with such financial institution's

11 right to continue collection efforts on the loan.

12 (b) The department shall maintain records in the regular course of 13 administration of the loan guarantee program, including a record of 14 loans issued and of payments made to honor loan guarantees issued under 15 this section. The department shall regularly review such records to 16 determine total loans issued and identify duplicative applications. The 17 department shall report to the department of labor the names of the 18 affected employees who have received a loan under the program, and the 19 department of labor shall provide to the department information concern-
20 ing such employees' unemployment compensation benefits. If the depart-

22 compensation benefits, the affected employee may be deemed ineligible 23 for additional loans under this act.

24 (c) The department may terminate any loan guarantee if the eligible 25 financial institution misrepresents any information pertaining to the

28 (d) If the amounts expended to honor loan guarantees under the program
29 exceed ten percent of total loans issued, the department shall imme-30 diately cease to approve claims and shall notify the comptroller and 31 each eligible financial institution of the total amount of payments made 32 and that the department has ceased honoring loan guarantees.

33 (e) Any interest deferred or not charged related to a loan issued 34 pursuant to this act shall be exempt from all state taxes that may be 35 applicable to such interest amounts as they relate to an affected
36 employee. Eligible financial institutions shall disclose to affected 37 employee borrowers in the signed affidavit or loan documents that there 38 may be federal tax consequences to the program loans.

39 (f) No new loan applications shall be submitted under the program
40 after the shutdown ends. The program shall expire upon the repayment of 41 all loans made under the program and, for all loans in default, the 42 repayment of claims made under the program, or the cessation of new 43 claim approvals under subdivision (d) of this section.

44 § 6. Unemployment benefits. Upon the passage of federal legislation or 45 the issuance of federal guidance from the United States department of 46 labor or another federal agency which allows an affected employee to 47 receive benefits, such affected employee may be eligible for unemploy-48 ment benefits pursuant to such federal legislation or guidance during 49 the period of the shutdown. If the shutdown ends and an affected employ-50 ee is paid by the federal government for any period of time the affected 51 employee worked without pay during the shutdown, the affected employee 52 shall reimburse the unemployment insurance fund in an amount equal to 53 the unemployment benefits the affected employee received for the period 54 of the shutdown.

55 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately.
