2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 28, 2019

Introduced by Sens. BAILEY, SEPULVEDA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Housing, Construction and Community Development

AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four and the emergency housing rent control law, in relation to approving major capital improvement rent increases and extending the length of time over which major capital improvement expenses may be recovered

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subparagraph (g) of paragraph 1 of subdivision g of section 26-405 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by section 31 of part A of chapter 20 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

(g) (i) Collection of surcharges to the maximum rent authorized pursuant to item (ii) of this subparagraph shall cease when the owner has recovered the cost of the major capital improvement;

(ii) There has been since July first, nineteen hundred seventy, a major capital improvement [required for the operation, preservation or 10 maintenance of the structure. An adjustment under this subparagraph (g) for any order of the commissioner issued after the effective date of the 12 rent act of 2015 shall be in an amount sufficient to amortize the cost 13 of the improvements pursuant to this subparagraph (g) over an eight year period for buildings with thirty-five or fewer units or a nine year 14 period for buildings with more than thiry-five units,]; provided that the commissioner first finds that such improvements are deemed deprecia-16 17 ble under the internal revenue code and such improvements are required 18 for the operation or preservation of the structure. However, no major capital improvement rent increase will be approved by the division of 20 housing and community renewal unless the work performed is an enhance-21 ment or upgrade to a housing accommodation or service therein; or is an addition to such housing accommodation and otherwise eligible according to the prerequisites for major capital improvement rent increases. Any repair or replacement intended to maintain an existing service shall not 3 4 be eligible for a major capital improvement rent increase. No applica-5 tion for a major capital improvement rent increase may be approved if 6 there exist any outstanding hazardous violations at the time of the 7 consideration of such application, as determined pursuant to regulations 8 of the division of housing and community renewal or any agency adminis-9 tering and enforcing a building code in the jurisdiction in which the 10 property is located, unless it is determined by the division of housing 11 and community renewal that such work is essential to the alleviation of the violations and such approval is consistent with the provisions of 12 13 this section. Except in the case of emergency or good cause, the owner 14 of the property shall file, not less than thirty days before the commencement of the improvement, with the division of housing and commu-15 16 nity renewal a statement containing information outlining the scope of 17 work, expected date of completion for such work and an affidavit setting forth the following information: (a) every owner of record and owner of 18 19 a substantial interest in the property or entity owning the property or sponsoring the improvement; and (b) a statement that none of such 20 21 persons had, within the five years prior to the improvement, been found to have harassed or unlawfully evicted tenants by judgment or determi-22 nation of a court or agency under the penal law, any state or local law 23 regulating rents or any state or local law relating to harassment of 24 25 tenants or unlawful eviction. Upon receipt of the scope of work and 26 affidavit provided for herein, the division of housing and community 27 renewal shall provide the tenants in occupancy in such buildings with such information. The division of housing and community renewal shall, 28 29 in addition, implement procedures including, but not limited to, elicit-30 ing tenant comments to determine whether major capital improvement reha-31 bilitation work has been satisfactorily completed. No major capital 32 improvement rent increase shall become effective until any defective or 33 deficient rehabilitation work has been cured. The increase permitted for such capital improvement shall be collected as a monthly surcharge to 34 35 the maximum rent. It shall be separately designated and billed as such 36 and shall not be compounded by any other adjustment to the maximum rent. 37 The surcharge allocable to each apartment shall be an amount equal to 38 the cost of the improvement divided by eighty-four, divided by the number of rooms in the building, and then multiplied by the number of 39 rooms in such apartment; provided that the surcharge allocable to any 40 41 apartment in any one year may not exceed an amount equal to six percent 42 of the monthly rent collected by the owner for such apartment as set 43 forth in the schedule of gross rents. Any excess above said six percent shall be carried forward and collected in future years as a further 44 45 surcharge not to exceed an additional six percent in any one year period 46 until the total surcharge equals the amount it would have been if the 47 aforementioned six percent limitation did not apply; or 48

§ 2. Subparagraph (k) of paragraph 1 of subdivision g of section 26-405 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by chapter 749 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read as follows:

centum of the total operating and maintenance expenses for the preceding year. An adjustment under this subparagraph shall be in addition to any adjustment granted for the concurrent major capital improvement and shall be [in an amount sufficient to amortize the cost of the improvements pursuant to this subparagraph over a seven year period] implemented in the same manner as such major capital improvement as a further surcharge to the maximum rent.

- § 3. Paragraph 6 of subdivision c of section 26-511 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by section 29 of part A of chapter 20 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
- 10 11 (6) provides criteria whereby the commissioner may act upon applications by owners for increases in excess of the level of fair rent 12 increase established under this law provided, however, that such crite-13 14 ria shall provide [(a) as in regard to hardship applications, for a finding that the level of fair rent increase is not sufficient to enable 15 16 the owner to maintain approximately the same average annual net income 17 (which shall be computed without regard to debt service, financing costs or management fees) for the three year period ending on or within six 18 months of the date of an application pursuant to such criteria as 19 20 compared with annual net income, which prevailed on the average over the period nineteen hundred sixty-eight through nineteen hundred seventy, or for the first three years of operation if the building was completed 22 since nineteen hundred sixty-eight or for the first three fiscal years 23 after a transfer of title to a new owner provided the new owner can 24 25 establish to the satisfaction of the commissioner that he or she 26 acquired title to the building as a result of a bona fide sale of the 27 entire building and that the new owner is unable to obtain requisite records for the fiscal years nineteen hundred sixty-eight through nine-28 29 teen hundred seventy despite diligent efforts to obtain same from prede-30 cessors in title and further provided that the new owner can provide 31 financial data covering a minimum of six years under his or her contin-32 uous and uninterrupted operation of the building to meet the three year 33 to three year comparative test periods herein provided[+ and (b) as to completed building-wide major capital improvements, for a finding that 34 such improvements are deemed depreciable under the Internal Revenue Code 35 36 and that the cost is to be amortized over an eight-year period for a 37 building with thirty-five or fewer housing accommodations, or a nine-38 year period for a building with more than thirty-five housing accommodations, for any determination issued by the division of housing and 39 community renewal after the effective date of the rent act of 2015, 40 based upon cash purchase price exclusive of interest or service charg-41 42 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no 43 hardship increase granted pursuant to this paragraph shall, when added 44 to the annual gross rents, as determined by the commissioner, exceed the 45 sum of, (i) the annual operating expenses, (ii) an allowance for manage-46 ment services as determined by the commissioner, (iii) actual annual 47 mortgage debt service (interest and amortization) on its indebtedness to 48 lending institution, an insurance company, a retirement fund or 49 welfare fund which is operated under the supervision of the banking or 50 insurance laws of the state of New York or the United States, and (iv) eight and one-half percent of that portion of the fair market value of 51 52 the property which exceeds the unpaid principal amount of the mortgage indebtedness referred to in subparagraph (iii) of this paragraph. Fair 54 market value for the purposes of this paragraph shall be six times the 55 annual gross rent. The collection of any increase in the stabilized rent for any apartment pursuant to this paragraph shall not exceed six

- § 4. Subdivision c of section 26-511 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding three new paragraphs 6-b, 6-c and 6-d to read as follows:
- 9 (6-b) provides criteria whereby the commissioner may act upon applica-10 tion by owners for increases in excess of the level of fair rent increase established under this law provided, however, that such crite-11 ria shall provide that: 12
 - (i) as to completed building-wide major capital improvements, first, that a finding that such improvements are deemed depreciable under the internal revenue code and such improvements are required for the operation or preservation of the structure;
 - (ii) however, no major capital improvement rent increase will be approved by the division of housing and community renewal unless the work performed is an enhancement or upgrade to a housing accommodation or service therein; or is an addition to such housing accommodation and otherwise eligible according to the prerequisites for major capital improvement rent increases. Any repair or replacement intended to maintain an existing service shall not be eligible for a major capital improvement rent increase;
 - (iii) no application for a major capital improvement rent increase may be approved if there exist any outstanding hazardous violations at the time of the consideration of such application, as determined pursuant to regulations of the division of housing and community renewal or any agency administering and enforcing a building code in the jurisdiction in which the property is located, unless it is determined by the division of housing and community renewal that such work is essential to the alleviation of the violations and such approval is consistent with the provisions of this section. Except in the case of emergency or good cause, the owner of the property shall file, not less than thirty days before the commencement of the improvement, with the division of housing and community renewal a statement containing information outlining the scope of work, expected date of completion for such work and an affidavit setting forth the following information:
 - (A) every owner of record and owner of a substantial interest in the property or entity owning the property or sponsoring the improvement; and
 - a statement that none of such persons had, within the five years prior to the improvement, been found to have harassed or unlawfully evicted tenants by judgment or determination of a court or agency under the penal law, any state or local law regulating rents or any state or local law relating to harassment of tenants or unlawful eviction.

Upon receipt of the scope of work and affidavit provided for herein, the division of housing and community renewal shall provide the tenants in occupancy in such buildings with such information. The division of housing and community renewal shall, in addition, implement procedures including, but not limited to, eliciting tenant comments to determine whether major capital improvement rehabilitation work has been satisfactorily completed. No major capital improvement rent increase shall 54 become effective until any defective or deficient rehabilitation work 55 has been cured.

(6-c) the increase permitted for such capital improvement shall be collected as a monthly surcharge to the legal regulated rent. It shall be separately designated and billed as such and shall not be compounded by any annual adjustment of the level of fair rent provided for under subdivision b of section 26-510 of this law. The surcharge allocable to each apartment shall be an amount equal to the cost of the improvement divided by eighty-four divided by the number of rooms in the building, and then multiplied by the number of rooms in such apartment; provided that the surcharge allocable to any apartment, in any one year may not exceed an amount equal to six percent of the monthly rent collected by the owner for such apartment as set forth in the schedule of gross rents. Any excess above said six percent shall be carried forward and collected in future years as a further surcharge not to exceed an additional six percent in any one year period until the total surcharge equals the amount it would have been if the aforementioned six percent limitation did not apply.

- (6-d) collection of surcharges in excess of the level of fair rent authorized pursuant to paragraph six-b and six-c of this subdivision shall cease when the owner has recovered the cost of the major capital improvement.
- § 5. Paragraph 3 of subdivision d of section 6 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, as amended by section 30 of part A of chapter 20 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
- (3) (i) collection of surcharges in addition to the legal regulated rent authorized pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph shall cease when the owner has recovered the cost of the major capital improvement;

(ii) there has been since January first, nineteen hundred seventy-four a major capital improvement [required for the operation, preservation or maintenance of the structure. An adjustment under this paragraph shall be in an amount sufficient to amortize the cost of the improvements pursuant to this paragraph over an eight-year period for a building with thirty-five or fewer housing accommodations, or a nine-year period for a building with more than thirty-five housing accommodations, for any determination issued by the division of housing and community renewal after the effective date of the rent act of 2015,]; provided that the commissioner first finds that such improvements are deemed depreciable under the internal revenue code and such improvements are required for the operation or preservation of the structure. However, no major capital improvement rent increase will be approved by the division of housing and community renewal unless the work performed is an enhancement or upgrade to a housing accommodation or service therein; or is an addition to such housing accommodation and otherwise eligible according to the prerequisites for major capital improvement rent increases. Any repair or replacement intended to maintain an existing service shall not be eligible for a major capital improvement rent increase. § 6. The second undesignated paragraph of paragraph (a) of subdivision 4 of section 4 of chapter 274 of the laws of 1946, constituting the emergency housing rent control law, as amended by section 25 of part B of chapter 97 of the laws of 2011, subparagraph 7 as amended by section 32 of part A of chapter 20 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

No application for adjustment of maximum rent based upon a sales price valuation shall be filed by the landlord under this subparagraph prior to six months from the date of such sale of the property. In addition, no adjustment ordered by the commission based upon such sales price valuation shall be effective prior to one year from the date of such sale. Where, however, the assessed valuation of the land exceeds four times the assessed valuation of the buildings thereon, the commission may determine a valuation of the property equal to five times the equalized assessed valuation of the buildings, for the purposes of this subparagraph. The commission may make a determination that the valuation of the property is an amount different from such equalized assessed valuation where there is a request for a reduction in such assessed valuation currently pending; or where there has been a reduction in the assessed valuation for the year next preceding the effective date of the current assessed valuation in effect at the time of the filing of the application. Net annual return shall be the amount by which the earned income exceeds the operating expenses of the property, excluding mortgage interest and amortization, and excluding allowances for obsoles-3 cence and reserves, but including an allowance for depreciation of two per centum of the value of the buildings exclusive of the land, or the amount shown for depreciation of the buildings in the latest required 7 federal income tax return, whichever is lower; provided, however, 8 (1) no allowance for depreciation of the buildings shall be included 9 where the buildings have been fully depreciated for federal income tax 10 purposes or on the books of the owner; or (2) the landlord who owns no 11 more than four rental units within the state has not been fully compensated by increases in rental income sufficient to offset unavoidable 12 13 increases in property taxes, fuel, utilities, insurance and repairs and 14 maintenance, excluding mortgage interest and amortization, and excluding 15 allowances for depreciation, obsolescence and reserves, which have 16 occurred since the federal date determining the maximum rent or the date 17 the property was acquired by the present owner, whichever is later; or 18 (3) the landlord operates a hotel or rooming house or owns a cooperative apartment and has not been fully compensated by increases in rental 19 20 income from the controlled housing accommodations sufficient to offset 21 unavoidable increases in property taxes and other costs as are allocable such controlled housing accommodations, including costs of operation 22 of such hotel or rooming house, but excluding mortgage interest and 23 amortization, and excluding allowances for depreciation, obsolescence 24 25 and reserves, which have occurred since the federal date determining the 26 maximum rent or the date the landlord commenced the operation of the 27 property, whichever is later; or (4) the landlord and tenant voluntarily enter into a valid written lease in good faith with respect to any hous-28 29 ing accommodation, which lease provides for an increase in the maximum 30 rent not in excess of fifteen per centum and for a term of not less than 31 two years, except that where such lease provides for an increase in 32 excess of fifteen per centum, the increase shall be automatically 33 reduced to fifteen per centum; or (5) the landlord and tenant by mutual 34 voluntary written agreement agree to a substantial increase or decrease 35 in dwelling space or a change in the services, furniture, furnishings or 36 equipment provided in the housing accommodations; provided that an owner 37 shall be entitled to a rent increase where there has been a substantial 38 modification or increase of dwelling space or an increase in the 39 services, or installation of new equipment or improvements or new furniture or furnishings provided in or to a tenant's housing accommodation. 40 41 The permanent increase in the maximum rent for the affected housing 42 accommodation shall be one-fortieth, in the case of a building with 43 thirty-five or fewer housing accommodations, or one-sixtieth, in the case of a building with more than thirty-five housing accommodations 44 45 where such permanent increase takes effect on or after September twen-46 ty-fourth, two thousand eleven, of the total cost incurred by the land-47 lord in providing such modification or increase in dwelling space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, including the cost of 48 installation, but excluding finance charges provided further that an 49 50 owner who is entitled to a rent increase pursuant to this clause shall 51 not be entitled to a further rent increase based upon the installation 52 of similar equipment, or new furniture or furnishings within the useful life of such new equipment, or new furniture or furnishings. The owner 54 shall give written notice to the commission of any such adjustment 55 pursuant to this clause; or (6) there has been, since March first, nineteen hundred fifty, an increase in the rental value of the housing accommodations as a result of a substantial rehabilitation of the build-1 2 ing or housing accommodation therein which materially adds to the value 3 of the property or appreciably prolongs its life, excluding ordinary 4 maintenance and replacements; or (7) (i) collection of 5 surcharges to the maximum rent authorized pursuant to item (ii) of this 6 clause shall cease when the owner has recovered the cost of the major 7 capital improvement; (ii) there has been since March first, nineteen 8 hundred fifty, a major capital improvement [required for the operation, 9 preservation or maintenance of the structure; which for any order of the commissioner issued after the effective date of the rent act of 2015 the 10 cost of such improvement shall be amortized over an eight-year period 11 for buildings with thirty-five or fewer units or a nine year period for 12 buildings with more than thiry-five units, or]; provided that 13 14 commissioner first finds that such improvements are deemed depreciable under the internal revenue code and such improvements are required for 15 16 the operation or preservation of the structure. However, no major capi-17 tal improvement rent increase will be approved by the division of hous-18 ing and community renewal unless the work performed is an enhancement or 19 upgrade to a housing accommodation or service therein; or is an addition 20 to such housing accommodation and otherwise eligible according to the 21 prerequisites for major capital improvement rent increases. Any repair or replacement intended to maintain an existing service shall not be 22 eligible for a major capital improvement rent increase. No application 23 24 for a major capital improvement rent increase may be approved if there 25 exist any outstanding hazardous violations at the time of the consider-26 ation of such application, as determined pursuant to regulations of the 27 division of housing and community renewal or any agency administering and enforcing a building code in the jurisdiction in which the property 28 29 is located, unless it is determined by the division of housing and 30 community renewal that such work is essential to the alleviation of the 31 violations and such approval is consistent with the provisions of this 32 section. Except in the case of emergency or good cause, the owner of the 33 property shall file, not less than thirty days before the commencement 34 of the improvement, with the division of housing and community renewal a 35 statement containing information outlining the scope of work, expected 36 date of completion for such work and an affidavit setting forth the 37 following information: (a) every owner of record and owner of a substan-38 tial interest in the property or entity owning the property or sponsor-39 ing the improvement; and (b) a statement that none of such persons had, within the five years prior to the improvement, been found to have 40 harassed or unlawfully evicted tenants by judgment or determination of a 41 42 court or agency under the penal law, any state or local law regulating 43 rents or any state or local law relating to harassment of tenants or unlawful eviction. Upon receipt of the scope of work and affidavit 44 45 provided for herein, the division of housing and community renewal shall 46 provide the tenants in occupancy in such buildings with such informa-47 tion. The division of housing and community renewal shall, in addition, 48 implement procedures including, but not limited to, eliciting tenant 49 comments to determine whether major capital improvement rehabilitation work has been satisfactorily completed. No major capital improvement 50 51 rent increase shall become effective until any defective or deficient rehabilitation work has been cured. The increase permitted for such 52 53 capital improvement shall be collected as a monthly surcharge to the 54 maximum rent. It shall be separately designated and billed as such and shall not be compounded by any other adjustment to the maximum rent. The 55 56 surcharge allocable to each apartment shall be an amount equal to the cost of the improvement divided by eighty-four, divided by the number of rooms in the building, and then multiplied by the number of rooms in such apartment; provided that the surcharge allocable to any apartment 3 4 in any one year may not exceed an amount equal to six percent of the monthly rent collected by the owner for such apartment as set forth in the schedule of gross rents. Any excess above said six percent shall be carried forward and collected in future years as a further surcharge not 7 8 to exceed an additional six percent in any one year period until the 9 total surcharge equals the amount it would have been if the aforementioned six percent limitation did not apply; or (8) there has been since 10 11 March first, nineteen hundred fifty, in structures containing more than four housing accommodations, other improvements made with the express 12 13 consent of the tenants in occupancy of at least seventy-five per centum 14 of the housing accommodations, provided, however, that no adjustment 15 granted hereunder shall exceed fifteen per centum unless the tenants 16 have agreed to a higher percentage of increase, as herein provided; or 17 (9) there has been, since March first, nineteen hundred fifty, a subletting without written consent from the landlord or an increase in the 18 19 number of adult occupants who are not members of the immediate family of 20 the tenant, and the landlord has not been compensated therefor by 21 adjustment of the maximum rent by lease or order of the commission or pursuant to the federal act; or (10) the presence of unique or peculiar 22 circumstances materially affecting the maximum rent has resulted in a maximum rent which is substantially lower than the rents generally 23 24 25 prevailing in the same area for substantially similar housing accommo-26 dations.

§ 7. Paragraph 5 of subdivision d of section 6 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, as amended by chapter 102 of the laws of 1984, is amended and a new paragraph 6 is added to read as follows:

31 (5) as an alternative to the hardship application provided under para-32 graph four of this subdivision, owners of buildings acquired by the same 33 owner or a related entity owned by the same principals three years prior 34 to the date of application may apply to the division for increases in 35 excess of the level of applicable guideline increases established under 36 this law based on a finding by the commissioner that such guideline 37 increases are not sufficient to enable the owner to maintain an annual 38 gross rent income for such building which exceeds the annual operating expenses of such building by a sum equal to at least five percent of 39 such gross rent. For the purposes of this paragraph, operating expenses 40 41 shall consist of the actual, reasonable, costs of fuel, labor, utili-42 ties, taxes, other than income or corporate franchise taxes, fees, permits, necessary contracted services and non-capital repairs, insur-43 44 ance, parts and supplies, management fees and other administrative costs 45 and mortgage interest. For the purposes of this paragraph, mortgage 46 interest shall be deemed to mean interest on a bona fide mortgage 47 including an allocable portion of charges related thereto. Criteria to be considered in determining a bona fide mortgage other than an institu-48 tional mortgage shall include [+]: condition of the property, location of 49 50 the property, the existing mortgage market at the time the mortgage is 51 placed, the term of the mortgage, the amortization rate, the principal 52 amount of the mortgage, security and other terms and conditions of the mortgage. The commissioner shall set a rental value for any unit occu-54 pied by the owner or a person related to the owner or unoccupied at the 55 owner's choice for more than one month at the last regulated rent plus the minimum number of guidelines increases or, if no such regulated rent

The amount of hardship increase shall be such as may be required to maintain the annual gross rent income as 3 provided by this paragraph. The division shall not grant a hardship application under this paragraph or paragraph four of this subdivision for a period of three years subsequent to granting a hardship application under the provisions of this paragraph. The collection of any increase in the rent for any housing accommodation pursuant to this 7 9 paragraph shall not exceed six percent in any year from the effective 10 date of the order granting the increase over the rent set forth in the 11 schedule of gross rents, with collectability of any dollar excess above said sum to be spread forward in similar increments and added to the 12 13 rent as established or set in future years.
