termination of tenancy in certain housing occupied by senior citizens and/or persons with disabilities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 2 228-a to read as follows:

3 § 228-a. Tenancy in rental buildings; senior citizens; persons with 4 disabilities. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section two hundred 5 twenty-eight of this article or any other provision to the contrary, if 6 substantially all of the lessees or tenants occupying units in a rental 7 building are over sixty-five years of age and/or are persons with disa-8 bilities, the lessor may not terminate or fail to renew a lease for 9 premises in such building or terminate a tenancy at will or at suffer-10 ance, except for cause involving actions of the tenant that violate the 11 terms of the lease, such as the non-payment of rent, without the prior 12 approval of a court of competent jurisdiction. In determining whether 13 to grant approval, the court shall consider factors including: whether 14 the lessor is operating the rental building at a profit or loss; the 15 need for any major capital repairs or improvements that cannot be 16 performed while the tenants are in occupancy; any written or oral 17 representations made by the lessor to tenants about how long they could 18 remain in occupancy; any alternative housing being offered by the 19 lessor, the number of affected tenants; and the length of time the 20 affected tenants have lived in their apartments. At the time of filing 21 any action affecting more than one lease and seeking such prior approval 22 from a court of competent jurisdiction, the lessor shall notify all the

2 filing of such action. The lessor shall also notify at such time any

5 action. While such action is pending, the lessor shall notify any 6 prospective lessee or tenant prior to the signing of a lease for prem-

8 2. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, a lessor of a rental 9 building where substantially all of the lessees or tenants occupying

11 persons with disabilities may not increase the rent in such rental 12 building by more than one percent above the percentage change in the
