15 6. a. If any animal is seized [and] or impounded pursuant to the provisions of this section, [section three hundred fifty-three-d of this 16 17 article] or section three hundred seventy-five of this article, or pursuant to the provisions of article six hundred ninety of the criminal 18 procedure law, for any violation of this article, any violation of arti-19 20 cle two hundred eighty of the penal law or in connection with the arrest 21 for an animal cruelty offense, then, upon arraignment of charges, or within a reasonable time thereafter, [the] a duly incorporated society 22 for the prevention of cruelty to animals, humane society, pound, animal 23 24 shelter, sheriff, municipal police department, district attorney or any 25 authorized agents thereof, hereinafter referred to for the purposes of 26 this section as the "impounding organization", may file a petition with 27 the court in which criminal charges have been filed requesting that the person from whom an animal is seized or the owner of the animal be 28 29 ordered to post a security. The district attorney prosecuting the charg-30 es may file and obtain the requested relief on behalf of the impounding 31 organization if requested to do so by the impounding organization. The 32 security shall be in an amount sufficient to secure payment for all 33 reasonable expenses expected to be incurred by the impounding organiza-34 tion in caring and providing for the animal pending disposition of the 35 charges. Reasonable expenses shall include, but not be limited to, esti-36 mated medical care and boarding of the animal for at least thirty days. 37 The amount of the security, if any, shall be determined by the court 38 after taking into consideration all of the facts and circumstances of the case including, but not limited to the recommendation of the 39 impounding organization having custody and care of the seized animal and 40 41 the cost of caring for the animal. If a security has been posted in 42 accordance with this section, the impounding organization may draw from 43 the security the actual reasonable costs to be incurred by such organ-44 ization in caring for the seized animal.

45 b. (1) Upon receipt of a petition pursuant to paragraph a of this 46 subdivision the court shall set a hearing on the petition to be 47 conducted within ten business days of the filing of such petition. The petitioner shall serve a true copy of the petition upon the defendant 48 and the district attorney if the district attorney has not filed the 49 50 petition on behalf of the petitioner. The petitioner shall also serve a 51 true copy of the petition on any interested person. For purposes of this 52 subdivision, interested person shall mean an individual, partnership, 53 firm, joint stock company, corporation, association, trust, estate or 54 other legal entity who the court determines may have a pecuniary inter-55 est in the animal which is the subject of the petition. The petitioner or the district attorney acting on behalf of the petitioner, shall have 56

1 the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the person 2 from whom the animal was seized violated a provision of this article. 3 The court may waive for good cause shown the posting of security.

4 If the court orders the posting of a security, the security shall (2) 5 be posted with the clerk of the court within five business days of the б hearing provided for in subparagraph one of this paragraph. The court 7 may order the immediate forfeiture of the seized animal to the impound-8 ing organization if the person ordered to post the security fails to do 9 so. Any animal forfeited shall be made available for adoption or euthan-10 ized subject to subdivision seven-a of section one hundred seventeen of 11 this chapter or section three hundred seventy-four of this article.

12 (3) In the case of an animal other than a companion animal or pet, if 13 a person ordered to post security fails to do so, the court may, in 14 addition to the forfeiture to [a duly incorporated society for the 15 prevention of cruelty to animals, humane society, pound, animal shelter 16 or any authorized agents thereof ] the impounding organization, and 17 subject to the restrictions of sections three hundred fifty-four, three hundred fifty-seven and three hundred seventy-four of this article, 18 order the animal which was the basis of the order to be sold, provided 19 20 that all interested persons shall first be provided the opportunity to 21 redeem their interest in the animal and to purchase the interest of the person ordered to post security, subject to such conditions as the court 22 23 deems appropriate to assure proper care and treatment of the animal. The 24 court may reimburse the person ordered to post security and any inter-25 ested persons any money earned by the sale of the animal less any costs 26 including, but not limited to, veterinary and custodial care. Any animal 27 determined by the court to be maimed, diseased, disabled or infirm so as to be unfit for sale or any useful purpose shall be forfeited to [a duly 28 29 incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or a duly 30 incorporated humane society ] the impounding organization or authorized 31 agents thereof, and be available for adoption or shall be euthanized 32 subject to section three hundred seventy-four of this article.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict in any way the rights of a secured party having a security interest in any animal described in this section. This section expressly does not impair or subordinate the rights of such a secured lender having a security interest in the animal or in the proceeds from the sale of such animal.

38 c. In no event shall the security prevent the impounding organization 39 having custody and care of the animal from disposing of the animal pursuant to section three hundred seventy-four of this article prior to 40 41 the expiration of the thirty day period covered by the security if the 42 court makes a determination of the charges against the person from whom 43 the animal was seized prior thereto. Upon receipt of a petition from the 44 impounding organization, the court may order the person from whom the 45 animal was seized or the owner of the animal to post an additional secu-46 rity with the clerk of the court to secure payment of reasonable 47 expenses for an additional period of time pending a determination by the 48 court of the charges against the person from whom the animal was seized. 49 The person who posted the security shall be entitled to a refund of the 50 security in whole or part for any expenses not incurred by such impound-51 ing organization upon adjudication of the charges. The person who posted 52 the security shall be entitled to a full refund of the security, includ-53 ing reimbursement by the impounding organization of any amount allowed 54 by the court to be expended, and the return of the animal seized and impounded upon acquittal or dismissal of the charges, except where the 55 56 dismissal is based upon an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal

The court order directing such refund and reimbursement shall provide for payment to be made within a reasonable time from the acquittal or dismissal of charges. § 7. Subdivision 8 of section 374 of the agriculture and markets law is REPEALED. § 8. Section 380 of the agriculture and markets law, as added by chapter 470 of the laws of 2017, is renumbered section 381 and a new section 382 is added to read as follows: § 382. Special sentencing provisions. In addition to any other penalty provided by law, a court may impose the following sentences upon a conviction for any animal cruelty offense: The convicted person may, after a duly held hearing pursuant to subdivision six of this section, be ordered by the court to forfeit, to an animal shelter, pound, sheriff, municipal police department, district attorney, a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or a duly incorporated humane society or authorized agents thereof, the animal or animals which are the basis of the conviction. Upon such an order of forfeiture, the convicted person shall be deemed to have relinquished all rights to the animals which are the basis of the conviction, except those granted in subdivision two of this section. In the case of farm animals, the court may, in addition to the forfeiture to an animal shelter, pound, sheriff, municipal police department, district attorney, a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or a duly incorporated humane society or authorized agents thereof, and subject to the restrictions of sections three hundred fifty-four and three hundred fifty-seven of this article, order the farm animals which were the basis of the conviction 28 29 to be sold. In no case shall farm animals which are the basis of the 30 conviction be redeemed by the convicted person who is the subject of the 31 order of forfeiture or by any person charged with an animal cruelty 32 offense for conspiring, aiding or abetting in the unlawful act which was 33 the basis of the conviction, or otherwise acting as an accomplice if such charge has not yet been adjudicated. The court shall reimburse the 34 35 convicted person and any duly determined interested persons, pursuant to subdivision six of this section, any money earned by the sale of the 36 farm animals less any costs including, but not limited to, veterinary 37 38 and custodial care, and any fines or penalties imposed by the court. The 39 court may order that the subject animals be provided with appropriate 40 care and treatment pending the hearing and the disposition of the charg-41 es. Any farm animal ordered forfeited but not sold shall be remanded to 42 the custody and charge of an animal shelter, pound, sheriff, municipal 43 police department, district attorney, a duly incorporated society for 44 the prevention of cruelty to animals or duly incorporated humane society 45 or its authorized agent thereof and disposed of pursuant to subdivision 46 five of this section.

47 3. The court may order that the convicted person shall not own, 48 harbor, or have custody or control of any other animals, other than farm animals, for a period of time which the court deems reasonable. In 49 making its determination of what period of time is reasonable, the court 50 51 shall take into account the totality of the circumstances before it and be bound to no single factor. Such order must be in writing and specif-52 53 ically state the period of time imposed. 54 No dog or cat in the custody of a duly incorporated society for 4.
