AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to the exercise of powers and duties of the board of elections of the city of New York and its executive management

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 3-300 of the election law is amended to read as 2 follows:
3 § 3-300. Board employees; appointment. [~~Every~~] 1. Except as provided 4 in subdivision two of this section, every board of elections shall 5 appoint, and at its pleasure remove, clerks, voting machine technicians, 6 custodians and other employees, fix their number, prescribe their 7 duties, fix their titles and rank and establish their salaries within 8 the amounts appropriated therefor by the local legislative body and 9 shall secure in the appointment of employees of the board of elections
10 equal representation of the major political parties. Every commissioner 11 in each board of elections except for commissioners of the board of 12 elections of the city of New York, may approve and at pleasure remove a 13 deputy, establish his title and prescribe his duties. [~~In~~]
14 2. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of general, special or local law, 15 in the city of New York, the board of elections shall appoint an execu-16 tive director and a deputy executive director who shall each be of sepa-
17 rate major political parties and whose duties it shall be to supervise 18 the operations of the board of elections [~~under the supervision of such~~ 19 ~~board~~] in accordance with this subdivision. The board of elections of 20 the city of New York shall advise the executive director and deputy 21 executive director on matters of policy affecting the administration of 22 elections in the city of New York. Except as expressly provided in this EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.

1 subdivision, such board shall exercise no executive power and perform no
2 executive or administrative functions. Except as expressly provided in 3 this subdivision, such board shall make no individualized decisions
4 concerning the employment of any specific person or the registration, 5 enrollment or qualifications of any specific voter. Nothing in this 6 subdivision shall be construed to require or authorize the day-to-day 7 supervision of the executive director or deputy executive director by 8 the board. The board may delegate powers and duties conferred upon the 9 board to the executive director and deputy executive director, to be 10 exercised consistent with paragraph (c) of this subdivision.

11 (b) The board shall have the power and duty to take the following 12 actions to the extent otherwise consistent with the jurisdiction of the 13 board pursuant to this chapter:

14 (1) take any action related to the creation, consolidation, division 15 or alteration of election districts pursuant to section 4-100 of this 16 chapter and the designation of poll sites pursuant to section 4-104 of 17 this chapter;

18 (2) make determinations regarding the nomination and designation of 19 candidates for public office and party positions pursuant to article six 20 or any other relevant provision of this chapter;

21 (3) make determinations regarding the form and content of ballots,
22 including but not limited to the determination of candidates and ques-
23 tions to appear on the ballot pursuant to section 4-114 of this chapter 24 and the certification of ballots pursuant to title one of article seven 25 or any other relevant provision of this chapter;

26 (4) adopt resolutions eliminating meetings for local registration 27 pursuant to subdivision six of section 5-202 of this chapter;

28 (5) make determinations concerning challenges to voter registration
29 and applications of voters unlawfully denied the right to register, 30 pursuant to title two of article five of this chapter;

31 (6) make determinations concerning the adoption and use of voting 32 machines or systems pursuant to section 7-200 of this chapter;

33 (7) canvass election results and perform all functions of the board of 34 canvassers in the city of New York, including but not limited to the 35 certification of election results, pursuant to article nine or any other 36 relevant provision of this chapter;

37 (8) take any action authorized by section 3-218 of this article;

38 (9) approve any contract where:

39 (i) such contract was let by a procurement method other than compet-
40 itive sealed bidding where the contract was awarded to the lowest 41 responsible bidder;

42 (ii) such contract provides for technical, consultant or personal 43 services;

44 (iii) the value of the contract exceeds or projects an annual expendi-45 ture exceeding one million dollars for the fiscal year or where the 46 value of any contracts awarded to a single entity exceeds or is project-47 ed to exceed one million dollars for the fiscal year; and

48 (10) promulgate regulations, issue orders and make decisions regarding 49 general policies affecting the administration of elections of the city
50 of New York.

51 (c) The executive director and deputy executive director shall collec-52 tively serve as the chief executive for the board of elections of the 53 city of New York and shall collectively exercise all their powers and 54 duties in a manner not inconsistent with the policies of the board. The 55 executive director and deputy executive director may each delegate 56 powers and duties to the other, and may collectively delegate powers and

1 duties to employees in furtherance of the purposes of this chapter.
2 Such powers and duties shall include but not be limited to:

3 (1) appointing, and at their pleasure removing, clerks, voting machine
4 technicians, custodians and other employees, fixing their number, 5 prescribing their duties, fixing their titles and rank and establishing 6 their salaries within the amounts appropriated therefor by the New York 7 city council, provided that this subparagraph shall not affect the 8 fixing of a daily rate of compensation pursuant to subdivision one of 9 section 3-420 of this article. They shall secure in the appointment of 10 employees equal representation of the major political parties. In exer-11 cising the powers conferred by this paragraph with respect to the 12 appointment of employees, the executive director and deputy executive 13 director shall, in consultation with the New York city department of 14 citywide administrative services establish written policies and proce-15 dures on personnel, other than those paid at a daily rate pursuant to 16 subdivision one of section 3-420 of this article, within ninety days of 17 the effective date of this paragraph. Such policies and procedures shall 18 include:

19 (i) specifications setting forth the qualifications for and the nature 20 and scope of the duties and responsibilities of each title, with 21 appointments to be made consistent with such specifications, provided 22 that appointments shall secure equal representation of the major poli-23 tical parties. Such specifications shall in addition to securing such 24 representation, give due weight to seniority, previous trainings and 25 experience, education and professional credentials, and performance 26 ratings where available. This paragraph shall not be construed to 27 require the preparation of administration of competitive examination of 28 eligible list for any title, nor shall it be construed to require the 29 termination of any individual employed by the board of elections of the 30 city of New York prior to the establishment of such specifications;

31 (ii) policies protecting employees from retaliation for disclosing 32 information concerning acts of wrongdoing, misconduct, malfeasance of 33 other inappropriate behavior by an employee or board member;

34 (iii) policies providing for appropriate ongoing training of employ-35 ees, including those individuals employed prior to the establishment of 36 such policies, with the purpose of ensuring that all employees have the 37 knowledge and experience to fulfill the duties of the position that they 38 hold; and

39 (iv) policies establishing an employee performance evaluation program 40 based upon evidence of work actually performed by employees as compared 41 with pre-established performance standards;

42 (2) exercising the powers and duties delegated to boards of elections,
43 or specifically to the board of elections of the city of New York, 44 except where such powers and duties are expressly reserved for such 45 board pursuant to this subdivision, in all matters relating to quali-46 fication of voters, voter registration and enrollment, cancellation of 47 voter registration, change of voter status and registration records 48 pursuant to article five of this chapter; and

49 (3) exercising the powers and duties delegated to boards of elections, 50 or specifically to the board of elections of the city of New York, in 51 all matters related to the administration of elections in the city of 52 New York not otherwise specified in subparagraphs one and two of this 53 paragraph.

54 § 2. Subdivision 3 of section 4-136 of the election law, as amended by 55 chapter 155 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

1 3. In the city of New York all leased or purchased equipment,
2 supplies, ballots, printing and publications, except newspaper notices 3 and advertisements, to be used or furnished by such board, may be 4 procured for it by the purchasing department or agency of such city as 5 if such board were an agency of such city. Such board shall comply with 6 the rules and regulations of the New York city procurement policy board 7 and applicable state law for all purchase contracts, including but not 8 limited to purchase of goods, services or technology.

9 § 3. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 10 have become a law.
