2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 29, 2019

Introduced by Sen. JORDAN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Budget and Revenue

AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to a business tax credit for purchase of data breach insurance; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 53 to read as follows:
- 53. Data breach insurance credit. (a) A taxpayer that is a business or owner of a business shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this article equal to twenty-five percent of the premium paid during the taxable year for qualified data breach insurance. For purposes of this section, the term "qualified data breach insurance" means coverage provided by an insurance company for expenses or losses in connection with the theft, loss, disclosure, inaccessibility, or manipulation, of data.
- 11 (b) In order to qualify for such credit, taxpayers shall adopt and be 12 in compliance with one of the following:
- (1) Version 1.0 of the framework for improving critical infrastructure cybersecurity published by the national institute of standards and technology as in effect on February twelfth, two thousand fourteen or subsequent versions or iterations; or
- 17 (2) Any similar standard specified by the state comptroller, after 18 consultation with the director of the office of information technology 19 services.
- 20 (c) In the case of insurance coverage under which amounts are payable 21 for other than expenses or losses described in paragraph (a) of this 22 subdivision:
- 23 (1) No amount shall be treated as premiums for qualified data breach
 24 insurance unless the charge for such insurance is either separately

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

stated in the contract, or furnished to the policyholder by the insur-2 ance company in a separate statement;

- (2) The amount taken into account as the premium paid or incurred for such insurance shall not exceed such charge; and
- (3) No amount shall be treated as paid or incurred for such insurance if the amount specified in the contract, or furnished to the policyholder by the insurance company in a separate statement, as the charge for such insurance is unreasonably large in relation to the total charges under the contract.
- 10 (d) Premiums shall be taken into account under paragraph (a) of this 11 subdivision only if such premiums are paid or incurred in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's trade or business. 12
- (e) This subdivision shall not apply to a business which employs one 14 hundred and one or more employees.
- 15 § 2. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection 16 (jjj) to read as follows:
 - (jjj) Data breach insurance credit. (1) A taxpayer that is a business or owner of a business shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this article equal to twenty-five percent of the premium paid during the taxable year for qualified data breach insurance. For purposes of this section, the term "qualified data breach insurance" means coverage provided by an insurance company for expenses or losses in connection with the theft, loss, disclosure, inaccessibility, or manipulation, of data.
 - (2) In order to qualify for such credit, taxpayers shall adopt and be in compliance with one of the following:
 - (A) Version 1.0 of the framework for improving critical infrastructure cybersecurity published by the national institute of standards and technology as in effect on February twelfth, two thousand fourteen or subsequent versions or iterations; or
- 31 (B) Any similar standard specified by the state comptroller, after 32 consultation with the director of the office of information technology 33 services.
 - (3) In the case of insurance coverage under which amounts are payable for other than expenses or losses described in paragraph one of this
 - (A) No amount shall be treated as premiums for qualified data breach insurance unless the charge for such insurance is either separately stated in the contract, or furnished to the policyholder by the insurance company in a separate statement;
 - (B) The amount taken into account as the premium paid or incurred for such insurance shall not exceed such charge; and
 - (C) No amount shall be treated as paid or incurred for such insurance the amount specified in the contract, or furnished to the policyholder by the insurance company in a separate statement, as the charge for such insurance is unreasonably large in relation to the total charges under the contract.
- (4) Premiums shall be taken into account under paragraph one of this 48 subsection only if such premiums are paid or incurred in the ordinary 49 course of the taxpayer's trade or business. 50
- 51 (5) This subsection shall not apply to a business which employs one 52 hundred and one or more employees.
- 53 § 3. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subsection (i) of section 606 54 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (xliv) to read as 55 follows:
- 56 (xliv) Data breach insurance Amount of credit under subdivision
