2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 29, 2019

Introduced by Sens. GOUNARDES, COMRIE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on New York City Education -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to requiring certain public schools in any city with a population over one million to offer food options which meet dietary restrictions of certain students

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 915-a 2 to read as follows:

§ 915-a. Food options. 1. In any city having over one million inhabitants, any public school that has twenty-five percent or more of students practicing a religious faith with specific dietary restrictions shall offer food options which meet such dietary restrictions at each meal offered.

2. Any school with fewer than twenty-five percent of students practicing a religious faith with specific dietary restrictions shall offer 9 10 food options at each meal that meet such dietary restrictions upon any 11 student's request and in sufficient amounts to meet the needs of any 12 such students, but shall not otherwise be required to offer such food

14 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amend-15 ment and/or repeal of any rules or regulations necessary for the imple-17 mentation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made on 18 or before such date.

EXPLANATION -- Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
