S. 3068 4

1 2. The department shall grant such waiver if such not-for-profit 2 corporation or retail food vendor proves:

- (a) that no reasonably feasible alternative exists to a specific and necessary article of polystyrene foam disposable food service ware; or
- (b) that there is no comparable alternative product not composed of polystyrene foam that would cost the same as or less than the disposable food service ware article composed of polystyrene foam and that the purchase or use of an alternative product not composed of polystyrene foam would create an undue financial hardship; or
- 10 (c) that there is no suitable affordable compostable, home composta-
 11 ble, or recyclable product available as an alternative to any disposable
 12 food service ware.
 - 3. Such unique packaging or financial hardship waiver shall be valid for twelve months and shall be renewable upon application to the department. A pending application for such waiver shall be a defense to any notice of violation issued pursuant to this title to which such pending application relates and such notice of violation shall be dismissed.
 - \S 3. The environmental conservation law is amended by adding a new section 71-2730 to read as follows:
- 20 § 71-2730. Enforcement of sections 27-2203 and 27-2205 of this chapter.
 - 1. Any person who shall violate section 27-2203 or 27-2205 of this chapter shall receive a warning notice for the first such violation. A person shall be liable to the state of New York for a civil penalty of not more than two hundred fifty dollars for the first violation after receiving a warning, not more than five hundred dollars for the second violation in the same calendar year, and not more than one thousand dollars for each subsequent violation in the same calendar year. For the purposes of this section, each commercial transaction shall constitute no more than one violation. A hearing or opportunity to be heard shall be provided prior to the assessment of any civil penalty.
- 2. (a) The department, the department of agriculture and markets, the department of health, and the attorney general are hereby authorized to enforce the provisions of sections 27-2203 and 27-2205 of this chapter.
 - (b) The provisions of section 27-2203 or 27-2205 of this chapter may also be enforced by a village, town, city, or county and the local legislative body thereof may adopt local laws, ordinances or regulations consistent with this title providing for the enforcement of such provisions.
 - 3. Any fines that are collected by the state during proceedings by the state to enforce the provisions of section 27-2203 or 27-2205 of this chapter shall be retained by the state. Any fines that are collected by a municipality during proceedings by the municipality to enforce such provisions within the municipality shall be retained by the municipality.
- § 4. This act shall take effect on the three hundred sixty-fifth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made on or before such date.
