AN ACT establishing the 400 Years of African-American History Commission; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The 400 Years of African-American History Commission, here-
2 inafter the "commission", is hereby established within the department of
3 state. The commission shall develop and carry out activities throughout
4 the state to commemorate the 400th anniversary of the arrival of Afri-
5 cans in the English colonies at Point Comfort, Virginia, in 1619.

6 § 2. (a) The commission shall consist of thirteen members, including
7 the secretary of state, or his or her designee, the commissioner of 8 education, or his or her designee, three members appointed by the gover-
9 nor, three members appointed by the temporary president of the senate,
10 three members appointed by the speaker of the assembly, one member
11 appointed by the senate minority leader, and one member appointed by the 12 assembly minority leader. Appointed members shall include but not be 13 limited to historians and those with a background in African-American
14 history, arts, or culture. Such appointments shall be made within 30
15 days of the effective date of this act.

16 (b) A vacancy on the commission shall be filled in the same manner in 17 which the original appointment was made.

18 (c) The members of the commission shall serve without compensation but
19 shall be entitled to reimbursement for all necessary expenses incurred
20 in the performance of their duties.

21 (d) The secretary of state, or his or her designee, shall serve as the 22 chair and shall appoint the vice-chair of the commission. The presence
23 of a majority of the authorized membership of the commission shall be
24 required for the conduct of official business.

(e) The department of state shall provide technical assistance and data to the commission as may be necessary for the commission to carry out its responsibilities pursuant to this act.

§ 3. The commission shall:

(a) plan programs appropriate for the commemoration to:

(1) acknowledge the impact that slavery and laws that enforced racial discrimination had on New York and the United States;

(2) recognize and highlight the resilience and contributions of African-Americans since 1619; and

(3) educate the public about the arrival of Africans in the United States and the contributions of African-Americans to New York and the United States;

(b) encourage civic, patriotic, historical, educational, artistic, religious, economic and other organizations to organize and participate in anniversary activities to expand understanding and appreciation of the significance of the arrival of Africans in New York and the United States and the contributions of African-Americans to New York and the United States;

(c) assist localities and nonprofit organizations to further the commemoration;

(d) coordinate for the public scholarly research on the arrival of Africans in the United States and their contributions to New York and the United States;

(e) ensure that the commemoration provides a lasting legacy and long-term public benefit by assisting in the development of appropriate programs; and

(f) ensure that the observances of the commemoration are inclusive and appropriately recognize the experiences and heritage of all individuals present at the arrival of Africans in New York and the United States.

§ 4. The commission may, from any monies appropriated for such purposes, provide:

(a) grants to communities and nonprofit organizations for the development of programs; and

(b) grants to research and scholarly organizations to research, publish, or distribute information relating to the arrival of Africans in New York and the United States.

§ 5. The commission shall submit a report to the governor and the legislature that contains a summary of its planned activities, an accounting of its received and expended funds, and its findings and recommendations on or before October 1, 2019.

§ 6. The commission shall submit a report to the governor and the legislature that contains a summary of its activities, a final accounting of its received and expended funds, and its findings and recommendations on or before June 1, 2021.

§ 7. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be deemed repealed July 1, 2021.
