AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to authorizing district attorneys to petition for the posting of security for the care of impounded animals

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraphs a and c of subdivision 6 of section 373 of the 2 agriculture and markets law, paragraph a as amended by chapter 289 of 3 the laws of 2018 and paragraph c as amended by chapter 256 of the laws
4 of 1997, are amended to read as follows:

5 a. If any animal is seized and impounded pursuant to the provisions of 6 this section, section three hundred fifty-three-d of this article or 7 section three hundred seventy-five of this article for any violation of 8 this article, upon arraignment of charges, or within a reasonable time
9 thereafter, the duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty
10 to animals, humane society, pound, animal shelter or any authorized 11 agents thereof, hereinafter referred to for the purposes of this section 12 as the "impounding organization", or the district attorney prosecuting
13 the charges or any agent thereof, acting on behalf of the impounding 14 organization, may at or after arraignment on the charges, file a peti-15 tion with the court in which criminal charges have been filed requesting 16 that the person from whom an animal is seized or the owner of the animal 17 be ordered to post a security. The district attorney prosecuting the 18 charges may file and obtain the requested relief on behalf of the 19 impounding organization if requested to do so by the impounding organ-20 ization. The security shall be in an amount sufficient to secure payment 21 for all reasonable expenses expected to be incurred by the impounding
22 organization in caring and providing for the animal pending disposition 23 of the charges. Reasonable expenses shall include, but not be limited ty days. The amount of the security, if any, shall be determined by the court after taking into consideration all of the facts and circumstances of the case including, but not limited to the recommendation of the impounding organization having custody and care of the seized animal and the cost of caring for the animal. If a security has been posted in accordance with this section, the impounding organization may draw from the security the actual reasonable costs to be incurred by such organization in caring for the seized animal.

c. In no event shall the security prevent the impounding organization having custody and care of the animal from disposing of the animal pursuant to section three hundred seventy-four of this article prior to the expiration of the thirty day period covered by the security if the court makes a determination of the charges against the person from whom the animal was seized prior thereto. Upon receipt of a petition [~~from the impounding organization~~] pursuant to this subdivision, the court may order the person from whom the animal was seized or the owner of the animal to post an additional security with the clerk of the court to secure payment of reasonable expenses for an additional period of time pending a determination by the court of the charges against the person from whom the animal was seized. The person who posted the security shall be entitled to a refund of the security in whole or part for any expenses not incurred by such impounding organization upon adjudication of the charges. The person who posted the security shall be entitled to a full refund of the security, including reimbursement by the impounding organization of any amount allowed by the court to be expended, and the return of the animal seized and impounded upon acquittal or dismissal of the charges, except where the dismissal is based upon an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal pursuant to section 215.30 of the criminal procedure law. The court order directing such refund and reimbursement shall provide for payment to be made within a reasonable time from the acquittal or dismissal of charges.

§ 2. Subparagraph 1 of paragraph b of subdivision 6 of section 373 of the agriculture and markets law, as amended by chapter 531 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon receipt of a petition pursuant to paragraph a of this subdivision the court shall set a hearing on the petition to be conducted within ten business days of the filing of such petition. The petitioner shall serve a true copy of the petition upon the defendant and, where the petitioner is not the district attorney, upon the district attorney if the district attorney has not filed the petition on behalf of the petitioner. The petitioner shall also serve a true copy of the petition on any interested person. For purposes of this subdivision, interested person shall mean an individual, partnership, firm, joint stock company, corporation, association, trust, estate or other legal entity who the court determines may have a pecuniary interest in the animal which is the subject of the petition. The petitioner or the district attorney acting on behalf of the petitioner, shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the person from whom the animal was seized violated a provision of this article. The court may waive for good cause shown the posting of security.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
