AN ACT to amend the uniform city court act, the uniform district court act, the uniform justice court act and the New York city civil court act, in relation to obtaining jurisdiction over certain defendants

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 1801 of the uniform city court act, as amended by
2 chapter 65 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 1801. Small claims defined.

4 The term "small claim" or "small claims" as used in this act shall 5 mean and include any cause of action for money only not in excess of 6 five thousand dollars exclusive of interest and costs, or any action 7 commenced by a party aggrieved by an arbitration award rendered pursuant 8 to part 137 of the rules of the chief administrator of the courts (22
9 NYCRR Part 137) in which the amount in dispute does not exceed $5,000, 10 provided that the defendant either resides, or has an office for the 11 transaction of business or a regular employment[~~7~~] within the county, or 12 where the claimant is or was a tenant or lessee of real property owned 13 by the defendant and the claim relates to such tenancy or lease, and 14 such real property is situated within the county.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscoring) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.

§ 2. Subdivision (a) of section 1803 of the uniform city court act, as amended by chapter 309 of the laws of 1996, the opening paragraph as amended by section 1 of part B of chapter 686 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

(a) Small claims shall be commenced upon the payment by the claimant of a filing fee of fifteen dollars for claims in the amount of one thousand dollars or less and twenty dollars for claims in the amount of more than one thousand dollars, without the service of a summons and, except by special order of the court, without the service of any pleading other than a statement of his cause of action by the claimant or someone in his behalf to the clerk, who shall reduce the same to a concise, written form and record it in a docket kept especially for such purpose. Such procedure shall provide for the sending of notice of such claim by ordinary first class mail and certified mail with return receipt requested to the party complained against (1) at his residence, if he resides within the county, and his residence is known to the claimant, or (2) at his office or place of regular employment within the county if he does not reside therein or his residence within the county is not known to the claimant, or (3) where the claimant is or was a tenant or lessee of real property owned by the defendant and the claim relates to such tenancy or lease and the notice of claim cannot be sent under paragraph one or two of this subdivision, at any place in the county or an adjoining county where claimant may mail or otherwise deliver rent. If, after the expiration of twenty-one days, such ordinary first class mailing has not been returned as undeliverable, the party complained against shall be presumed to have received notice of such claim. Such notice shall include a clear description of the procedure for filing a counterclaim, pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section.

Such procedure shall further provide for an early hearing upon and determination of such claim. No filing fee, however, shall be demanded or received on small claims of employees who shall comply with § 1912 of this act which is hereby made applicable, except that necessary mailing costs shall be paid.

§ 3. Section 1801 of the uniform district court act, as amended by chapter 65 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

§ 1801. Small claims defined.

The term "small claim" or "small claims" as used in this act shall mean and include any cause of action for money only not in excess of five thousand dollars exclusive of interest and costs, or any action commenced by a party aggrieved by an arbitration award rendered pursuant to part one hundred thirty-seven of the rules of the chief administrator of the courts (22 NYCRR Part 137) in which the amount in dispute does not exceed five thousand dollars, provided that the defendant either resides, or has an office for the transaction of business or a regular employment[7] within a district of the court in the county, or where the claimant is or was a tenant or lessee of real property owned by the defendant and the claim relates to such tenancy or lease, and such real property is situated within a district of the court in the county.

§ 4. Subdivision (a) of section 1803 of the uniform district court act, as amended by section 31 of part J of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

(a) Small claims shall be commenced upon the payment by the claimant of a filing fee of fifteen dollars for claims in the amount of one thousand dollars or less and twenty dollars for claims in the amount of more than one thousand dollars, without the service of a summons and, except by special order of the court, without the service of any pleading other

1 than a statement of his cause of action by the claimant or someone in
2 his behalf to the clerk, who shall reduce the same to a concise, written
3 form and record it in a docket kept especially for such purpose. Such 4 procedure shall provide for the sending of notice of such claim by ordi-
5 nary first class mail and certified mail with return receipt requested
6 to the party complained against (1) at his residence, if he resides
7 within a district of the court in the county, and his residence is known 8 to the claimant, or (2) at his office or place of regular employment
9 within such a district if he does not reside therein or his residence
10 within such a district is not known to the claimant, or (3) where claim-
11 ant is or was a tenant or lessee of real property owned by the defendant
12 and the claim relates to such tenancy or lease and the notice of claim 13 cannot be sent under paragraph one or two of this subdivision, at any 14 place in the state where claimant may mail or otherwise deliver rent.

15 If, after the expiration of twenty-one days, such ordinary first class 16 mailing has not been returned as undeliverable, the party complained 17 against shall be presumed to have received notice of such claim. Such 18 notice shall include a clear description of the procedure for filing a 19 counterclaim, pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section.

20 Such procedure shall further provide for an early hearing upon and 21 determination of such claim. No filing fee, however, shall be demanded
22 or received on small claims of employees who shall comply with § 1912
23 (a) of this act which is hereby made applicable, except that necessary
24 mailing costs shall be paid.

25 § 5. Section 1801 of the uniform justice court act, as amended by 26 chapter 76 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as follows:

27 § 1801. Small claims defined.

28 The term "small claim" or "small claims" as used in this act shall 29 mean and include any cause of action for money only not in excess of 30 three thousand dollars exclusive of interest and costs, provided that 31 the defendant either resides, or has an office for the transaction of 32 business or a regular employment[7] within the municipality where the 33 court is located, or where claimant is or was a tenant or lessee of real 34 property owned by the defendant and the claim relates to such tenancy or 35 lease, and such real property is situated within the municipality where 36 the court is located. However, where a judge of the county court, pursu-37 ant to subdivision (g) of section three hundred twenty-five of the civil 38 practice law and rules, transfers a small claim from the town or village
39 court having jurisdiction over the matter to another town or village 40 court within the same county, the court to which it is transferred shall 41 have jurisdiction to determine the claim.

42 § 6. Subdivision (a) of section 1803 of the uniform justice court act, 43 as amended by chapter 309 of the laws of 1996, is amended to read as 44 follows:

45 (a) Small claims shall be commenced upon the payment by the claimant 46 of a filing fee of ten dollars for claims in the amount of one thousand 47 dollars or less and fifteen dollars for claims in the amount of more 48 than one thousand dollars, without the service of a summons and, except 49 by special order of the court, without the service of any pleading other 50 than a statement of his cause of action by the claimant or someone in 51 his behalf to the clerk, who shall reduce the same to a concise, written 52 form and record it in a filing system maintained especially for such 53 purpose. Such procedure shall provide for the sending of notice of such 54 claim by ordinary first class mail and certified mail with return
55 receipt requested to the party complained against (1) at his residence, 56 if he resides within the county and his residence is known to the claimant, ~~(2)~~ (2) at his office or place of regular employment within the municipality if he does not reside within the county or his residence within the county is not known to the claimant, or (3) where claimant is or was a tenant or lessee of real property owned by the defendant and the claim relates to such tenancy or lease and the notice of claim cannot be sent under paragraph one or two of this subdivision, at any place in the county or an adjoining county where claimant may mail or otherwise deliver rent. If, after the expiration of twenty-one days, such ordinary first class mailing has not been returned as undeliverable, the party complained against shall be presumed to have received notice of such claim. Such notice shall include a clear description of the procedure for filing a counterclaim, pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section.

Such procedure shall further provide for an early hearing upon and determination of such claim. No filing fee, however, shall be demanded or received on small claims of employees who shall comply with section nineteen hundred twelve of this act which is hereby made applicable, except that necessary mailing costs shall be paid.

§ 7. Section 1801 of the New York city civil court act, as amended by chapter 664 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 1801. Small claims defined. The term "small claim" or "small claims" as used in this act shall mean and include any cause of action for money only not in excess of ten thousand dollars exclusive of interest and costs, or any action commenced by a party aggrieved by an arbitration award rendered pursuant to part 137 of the rules of the chief administrator of the courts (22 NYCRR Part 137) in which the amount in dispute does not exceed ten thousand dollars, provided that the defendant either resides, or has an office for the transaction of business or a regular employment~~[-]~~ within the city of New York, or where claimant is a tenant or lessee of real property owned by the defendant and the claim relates to such tenancy or lease, and such real property is situated within the city of New York.

§ 8. Subdivision (a) of section 1803 of the New York city civil court act, as amended by section 34 of part J of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

(a) Small claims shall be commenced upon the payment by the claimant of a filing fee of fifteen dollars for claims in the amount of one thousand dollars or less and twenty dollars for claims in the amount of more than one thousand dollars, without the service of a summons and, except by special order of the court, without the service of any pleading other than a statement of his cause of action by the claimant or someone in his behalf to the clerk, who shall reduce the same to a concise, written form and record it in a docket kept especially for such purpose. Such procedure shall provide for the sending of notice of such claim by ordinary first class mail and certified mail with return receipt requested to the party complained against (1) at his residence, if he resides within the city of New York, and his residence is known to the claimant, ~~(2)~~ (2) at his office or place of regular employment within the city of New York if he does not reside therein or his residence within the city of New York is not known to the claimant, or (3) where claimant is or was a tenant or lessee of real property owned by the defendant and the claim relates to such tenancy or lease and the notice of claim cannot be sent under paragraph one or two of this subdivision, at any place in the state where plaintiff may mail or otherwise deliver rent. If, after the expiration of twenty-one days, such ordinary first class mailing has not been returned as undeliverable, the party complained against shall be

1 presumed to have received notice of such claim. Such notice shall 2 include a clear description of the procedure for filing a counterclaim,
3 pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section.
4 Such procedure shall further provide for an early hearing upon and
5 determination of such claim. No filing fee, however, shall be demanded
6 or received on small claims of employees who shall comply with § 1912
7 (a) of this act which is hereby made applicable, except that necessary
8 mailing costs shall be paid.
9 § 9. This act shall take effect on the first of September next 10 succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.
