IN SENATE

(Prefiled)

January 9, 2019

Introduced by Sen. LANZA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to courses of instruction on the constitution of the United States and the federalist papers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivisions 2 and 3 of section 801 of the education law, 2 subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 481 of the laws of 1949 and subdivi-3 sion 3 as amended by chapter 574 of the laws of 1997, are amended and a 4 new subdivision 6 is added to read as follows:

5 2. The regents shall prescribe courses of instruction in the history, б meaning, significance and effect of the provisions of the constitution 7 of the United States, the amendments thereto, the federalist papers, the 8 declaration of independence, the constitution of the state of New York and the amendments thereto, to be maintained and followed in all of the 9 10 schools of the state. The boards of education and trustees of the several cities and school districts of the state shall require instruc-11 12 tion to be given in such courses, by the teachers employed in the 13 schools therein. All pupils attending such schools, in the eighth and 14 higher grades, shall attend upon such instruction.

Similar courses of instruction shall be prescribed and maintained in private schools in the state, and all pupils in such schools in grades or classes corresponding to the instruction in the eighth and higher grades of the public schools shall attend upon such courses. If such courses are not so established and maintained in a private school, attendance upon instruction in such school shall not be deemed substantially equivalent to instruction given to pupils in the public schools of the city or district in which such pupils reside.

23 3. The regents shall determine the subjects to be included in such 24 courses of instruction in patriotism, citizenship, and human rights
