3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, section 120.20 of the criminal procedure law shall apply in the event a person who has been charged with a violation of this section fails to appear before the court on the date set by the accusatory instrument; articles four hundred ten and four hundred twenty of the criminal procedure law and article twenty of the judiciary law shall apply in the event a person who has been found to have violated this section fails to pay such fine as may be set by the court within one hundred twenty days after the decision of the court.

- § 2. Subdivision 3 of section 65-c of the alcoholic beverage control law, as amended by chapter 137 of the laws of 2001, is amended to read as follows:
- 3. (a) Any person who unlawfully possesses an alcoholic beverage with intent to consume may be summoned before and examined by a court having jurisdiction of that charge; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall authorize, or be construed to authorize, a peace officer as defined in subdivision thirty-three of section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law or a police officer as defined in subdivision thirty-four of section 1.20 of such law to arrest a person who unlawfully possesses an alcoholic beverage with intent to consume. If a determination is made sustaining such charge the court may impose a fine not exceeding fifty dollars and/or completion of an alcohol awareness program established pursuant to section 19.25 of the mental hygiene law and/or an appropriate amount of community service not to exceed thirty hours.
- (b) In the event a person who has been determined to have unlawfully possessed an alcoholic beverage with intent to consume fails to pay such fine as may be set by the court, or complete an alcohol awareness program established pursuant to section 19.25 of the mental hygiene law and/or community service as required by the court within one hundred twenty days after the decision of the court, then in addition to such fine, program and/or community service, the court may impose an additional fine of not more than two hundred fifty dollars.
- (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, section 120.20 of the criminal procedure law shall apply in the event a person who has been alleged to have violated this section fails to appear before the court on the date set by the court; articles four hundred ten and four hundred twenty of the criminal procedure law and article twenty of the judiciary law shall apply in the event a person who has been found to have unlawfully possessed an alcoholic beverage with intent to consume in violation of this section fails to pay such fine as may be set by the court, or complete an alcohol awareness program established pursuant to section 19.25 of the mental hygiene law and/or community service as required by the court, within one hundred twenty days after the decision of the court.
- 45 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 46 have become a law.
