AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to hospital domestic violence policies and procedures

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The public health law is amended by adding a new section
2 2805-z to read as follows:

3 § 2805-z. Hospital domestic violence policies and procedures. 1.
4 Every general hospital shall: (a) develop, maintain and disseminate
5 written policies and procedures for the identification, assessment, 6 treatment and referral of confirmed or suspected cases of domestic 7 violence; (b) establish, and implement on an ongoing basis, a training 8 program for all current and new employees regarding the policies and 9 procedures established pursuant to this section; (c) designate a staff
10 member to coordinate services to victims of domestic violence; and (d)
11 contact the domestic violence or victim assistance organization provid-12 ing victim assistance to the geographic area served by such hospital to 13 establish the coordination of services to domestic violence victims.

14 2. Upon admittance or commencement of treatment of a confirmed or 15 suspected domestic violence victim, such hospital shall advise the 16 victim of the availability of the services of a domestic violence or 17 victim assistance organization. If after receiving such advice the 18 domestic violence victim wishes the presence of a domestic violence or 19 victim assistance advocate, such hospital shall contact the appropriate 20 organization and request that one be provided.

21 3. The commissioner shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may 22 be necessary and proper to carry out effectively the provisions of this 23 section. Prior to promulgating such rules and regulations, the commis-

1 sioner shall consult with the office for the prevention of domestic 2 violence and other such persons as the commissioner deems necessary to 3 develop a model policy for hospitals to utilize in complying with this 4 section.

5 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-
6 ing the date on which it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, 7 the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rules or regulations neces-8 sary for the implementation of the foregoing section of this act on its 9 effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such 10 effective date.
