IN SENATE

Introduced by Sen. ANTONACCI -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to the impact of school days missed due to a state of emergency on state apportionment to school districts

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 7 of section 3604 of the education law, as 2 amended by section 3 of part B of chapter 54 of the laws of 2016, is 3 amended to read as follows:

7. No district shall be entitled to any portion of such school moneys on such apportionment unless the report of the trustees or board of education for the preceding school year shall show that the public schools were actually in session in the district and taught by a qualified teacher or by successive qualified teachers or by qualified teach-9 ers for not less than one hundred eighty days. The moneys payable to a 10 school district pursuant to section thirty-six hundred nine-a of this 11 chapter in the current year shall be reduced by one one-hundred eight-12 ieth of the district's total foundation aid for each day less than one 13 hundred eighty days that the schools of the district were actually in session, except that the commissioner may disregard such reduction, up to five days, in the apportionment of public money, if he finds that the schools of the district were not in session for one hundred eighty days 16 because of extraordinarily adverse weather conditions, impairment of 17 heating facilities, insufficiency of water supply, shortage of fuel, 18 19 lack of electricity, natural gas leakage, unacceptable levels of chemi-20 cal substances, a credible threat to student safety as reasonably deter-21 mined by a lead school official or the destruction of a school building 22 either in whole or in part, and if, further, the commissioner finds that 23 such district cannot make up such days of instruction by using for the 24 secondary grades all scheduled vacation days which occur prior to the first scheduled regents examination day in June, and for the elementary grades all scheduled vacation days which occur prior to the last scheduled regents examination day in June. In the event the governor or exec-3 utive of a local municipality declares a weather related state of emergency and the district falls below the required one hundred eighty days to be in session the commissioner shall disregard the reduction in the 7 apportionment of public moneys. School districts will not be required to have utilized all scheduled vacation days prior to receiving this 9 exemption. For the purposes of this subdivision, "scheduled vacation 10 days" shall mean days on which the schools of the district are not in 11 session and for which no prohibition exists in subdivision eight of this section for them to be in session. For the purposes of this subdivision, 12 the term "state of emergency" shall follow the definitions set forth in 13 section twenty of the executive law. 14 15

§ 2. This act shall take effect September 1, 2019.
