Introduced by Sen. PARKER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Local Government

AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to a tax exemption for improvements to historic real property

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new 2 section 476 to read as follows:

3 § 476. Improvements to historic real property; tax exemption. 1. In 4 cities of a million or more population, improvements to historic real 5 property shall be exempt from taxation by any municipal corporation in 6 which they are located to the extent that the increase in assessment is 7 due to such improvement, provided that the governing body of such munic-
8 ipal corporation, after a public hearing, adopts a local law or resol-9 ution providing therefor, as provided in this section.

10 2. "Historic real property" shall mean real property which is:

11 (a) a one-, two- or three-family residence which is owner-occupied; 12 and

13 (b) designated by the appropriate local agency as a historic landmark 14 and such designation is maintained.

15 3. No exemption shall be granted unless the agency which is responsi-
16 ble to designate the real property as a historic landmark:

17 (a) certifies that it is in the public interest to provide that such 18 property is to be accessible to the public; and

19 (b) the owner of such property and such agency enters into a permanent 20 agreement to provide for reasonable public access to such property, 21 which agreement shall be binding on all subsequent owners and which 22 agreement shall be recorded in the office of the appropriate county
23 clerk in like manner as a deed.

24 4. Such exemption from taxation shall be granted only upon application
25 by the owner of such historic real property on or before the appropriate
