AN ACT to amend the domestic relations law, the family court act and the criminal procedure law, in relation to requiring mandatory prison sentences for repeat violators of orders of protection

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph h of subdivision 3 of section 240 of the domestic relations law, as amended by chapter 1 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

3 4 h. Upon issuance of an order of protection or temporary order of 5 protection or upon a violation of such order, the court shall make a determination regarding the suspension and revocation of a license to 7 carry, possess, repair or dispose of a firearm or firearms, ineligibility for such a license and the surrender of firearms in accordance with sections eight hundred forty-two-a and eight hundred forty-six-a of the 10 family court act, as applicable. Upon issuance of an order of protection 11 pursuant to this section or upon a finding of a violation thereof, the court also may direct payment of restitution in an amount not to exceed 12 ten thousand dollars in accordance with subdivision (e) of section eight 13 hundred forty-one of such act; provided, however, that in no case shall 14 15 an order of restitution be issued where the court determines that the party against whom the order would be issued has already compensated the 17 injured party or where such compensation is incorporated in a final judgment or settlement of the action. If the person so violating the 18 19 order has been found to have violated such order on more than one occa-20 sion, and this violation consisted of committing a family offense as defined in subdivision one of section eight hundred twelve of the family court act or subdivision one of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law, the court shall commit such person to a term of imprisonment of no less than thirty days, which may be served upon certain specified days or parts of days as the court may direct.

- § 2. Subdivision 9 of section 252 of the domestic relations law, as amended by chapter 1 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:
- 9 9. Upon issuance of an order of protection or temporary order of protection or upon a violation of such order, the court shall make a 10 11 determination regarding the suspension and revocation of a license to carry, possess, repair or dispose of a firearm or firearms, ineligibil-12 13 ity for such a license and the surrender of firearms in accordance with 14 sections eight hundred forty-two-a and eight hundred forty-six-a of the 15 family court act, as applicable. Upon issuance of an order of protection 16 pursuant to this section or upon a finding of a violation thereof, the 17 court also may direct payment of restitution in an amount not to exceed 18 ten thousand dollars in accordance with subdivision (e) of section eight hundred forty-one of such act; provided, however, that in no case shall 19 20 order of restitution be issued where the court determines that the 21 party against whom the order would be issued has already compensated the injured party or where such compensation is incorporated in a final 22 judgment or settlement of the action. If the person so violating the 23 24 order has been found to have violated such order on more than one occasion, and this violation consisted of committing a family offense as 25 26 defined in subdivision one of section eight hundred twelve of the family 27 court act or subdivision one of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law, the court shall commit such person to a term of imprisonment of no 28 29 less than thirty days, which may be served upon certain specified days 30 or parts of days as the court may direct.
 - § 3. Section 846-a of the family court act, as amended by chapter 1 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:
- 32 33 § 846-a. Powers on failure to obey order. If a respondent is brought 34 before the court for failure to obey any lawful order issued under this 35 article or an order of protection or temporary order of protection 36 issued pursuant to this act or issued by a court of competent jurisdic-37 tion of another state, territorial or tribal jurisdiction and if, 38 hearing, the court is satisfied by competent proof that the respondent 39 has willfully failed to obey any such order, the court may modify an existing order or temporary order of protection to add reasonable condi-40 41 tions of behavior to the existing order, make a new order of protection 42 in accordance with section eight hundred forty-two of this part, may order the forfeiture of bail in a manner consistent with article five 43 44 hundred forty of the criminal procedure law if bail has been ordered 45 pursuant to this act, may order the respondent to pay the petitioner's 46 reasonable and necessary counsel fees in connection with the violation 47 petition where the court finds that the violation of its order was willful, and may commit the respondent to jail for a term not to exceed six 48 49 months. If the respondent has been found by competent proof to have willfully failed to obey such order of protection on more than one occa-50 51 sion, and this willful failure consisted of committing a family offense 52 as defined in subdivision one of section eight hundred twelve of this 53 article or subdivision one of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure 54 law, the court shall commit such person to a term of imprisonment of not 55 less than thirty days. Such commitment may be served upon certain speci-56 fied days or parts of days as the court may direct, and the court may,

1 at any time within the term of such sentence, revoke such suspension and commit the respondent for the remainder of the original sentence, or suspend the remainder of such sentence. If the court determines that the willful failure to obey such order involves violent behavior constituting the crimes of menacing, reckless endangerment, assault or attempted assault and if such a respondent is licensed to carry, possess, repair and dispose of firearms pursuant to section 400.00 of the penal law, the court may also immediately revoke such license and may arrange for the immediate surrender pursuant to subparagraph (f) of paragraph one of subdivision a of section 265.20 and subdivision six of section 400.05 of the penal law, and disposal of any firearm such respondent owns or possesses. If the willful failure to obey such order involves the infliction of physical injury as defined in subdivision nine of section 10.00 of the penal law or the use or threatened use of a deadly weapon or dangerous instrument, as those terms are defined in subdivisions twelve and thirteen of section 10.00 of the penal law, such revocation and immediate surrender pursuant to subparagraph (f) of paragraph one of subdivision a of section 265.20 and subdivision six of section 400.05 of the penal law [six] and disposal of any firearm owned or possessed by respondent shall be mandatory, pursuant to subdivision eleven of section 400.00 of the penal law.

- § 4. Subdivision 11 of section 530.12 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 15 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:
- 11. If a defendant is brought before the court for failure to obey any lawful order issued under this section, or an order of protection issued by a court of competent jurisdiction in another state, territorial or tribal jurisdiction, and if, after hearing, the court is satisfied by competent proof that the defendant has willfully failed to obey any such order, (a) the court may:
- [(a)] (i) revoke an order of recognizance or release under non-monetary conditions or revoke an order of bail or order forfeiture of such bail and commit the defendant to custody; or
- $[\frac{\text{(ii)}}{\text{(ii)}}]$ restore the case to the calendar when there has been an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal and commit the defendant to custody; or
- $[\frac{(e)}{(iii)}]$ revoke a conditional discharge in accordance with section 410.70 of this chapter and impose probation supervision or impose a sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the penal law based on the original conviction; or
- [(d)] (iv) revoke probation in accordance with section 410.70 of this chapter and impose a sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the penal law based on the original conviction. In addition, if the act which constitutes the violation of the order of protection or temporary order of protection is a crime or a violation the defendant may be charged with and tried for that crime or violation; and
- (b) If the court finds that the defendant has willfully failed to obey such order of protection on more than one occasion and this willful failure consisted of committing a family offense as defined in subdivision one of this section or subdivision one of section eight hundred twelve of a family court act, the court shall commit such person to a term of imprisonment of not less than thirty days, which may be served upon certain specified days or parts of days as the court may direct.
- § 5. Subdivision 8 of section 530.13 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 388 of the laws of 1984, and paragraph (a) as amended
