AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to executive orders relating to cooperation with federal law enforcement

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 233 to read as follows:

§ 233. Prohibition against regulations, rules or executive orders directing the state police to not assist with the enforcement of federal law or to not cooperate with federal law enforcement. 1. No employee of the state police, including the superintendent, or any trooper, investigator or other officer, shall be directed by any state regulation, rule or executive order, to not assist with the enforcement of federal law or to not cooperate with federal law enforcement in the effort to enforce any provision of federal law.

2. Any state regulation, rule or executive order directing the state police, including the superintendent, or any trooper, investigator or other officer, to not assist with the enforcement of federal law or to not cooperate with federal law enforcement in the effort to enforce any provision of federal law, shall be deemed invalid, null and void.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
